One Of Worst In Years

Middle Atlantic Region Hit By Heavy Snowstorm

By The Associated Press

A heavy snowstorm, termed by the Weather Bureau the biggest in years in the Middle Atlantic region, choked much of the region with wind-piled drifts today.

Virginia and the Carolinas were hard hit, and accumulations ranged up to 15 inches at Roanoke. Richmond was staggered with 14 inches of new snow and Washington, D.C., caught 3 inches during the night to find a 7-inch mantle today.

The Coast Guard at Portsmouth, Va., said the SS Sea Train New Jersey, carrying 39 crewmen and a cargo of truck trailers and railroad cars, was drifting in the choppy Atlantic off Cape Hatteras, N.C. The ship was located near the center of the Atlantic seaboard storm. The Coast Guard reported the 483-foot vessel said she was in no immediate danger.

At least two persons died in the third wintry assault on Virginia in less than two weeks — and the first to hit every area of the state.

As the snow began to taper off, state police and the Weather Bureau reported depths ranged to more than 16 inches and some drifts of 3 feet.

State police said chains or snow tires were required for auto travel anywhere in Virginia.

There was some snow over a 14-state area from northern Georgia to southern New England and the big disturbance brought Weather Bureau warnings of gales and high tides along the coast.

St. Mary's City, Md., on western Chesapeake Bay had 14 inches of snow. In North Carolina, Greensboro had 10 inches of cover.

Gale warnings were posted from Savannah, Ga., to Eastport, Maine, and the Weather Bureau said tides 2 to 4 feet above normal were expected to flood some low shore areas and bring some beach erosion from pounding of waves.

Message To Congress

LBJ's Economic Report Paints Glowing Outlook

Gives Advice To Business And Labor

Declares Wage And Price Decisions 'Must Be Sound'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson said today the nation has achieved the ability to ward off recessions, hold booms in bounds and keep an American economic miracle going in 1966.

Johnson attached a condition to this glowing outlook: wage and price decisions by labor and business must be "sound and responsible — just as I am determined that public decisions will be fully responsible."

"If they are," the President said, "the American economic miracle will remain in 1966 the single most important force in the economic progress of mankind."

This was in an 8,000-word message he sent to Congress along with the annual report of his Council of Economic Advisers.

The report was a bit less exuberant in language than the message. But sprinkled through both were sentences and phrases of unvarnished optimism, qualified here and there with a word of restraint or caution.

The forecasts are for more business, more jobs, more profits, more spending and what Johnson called a "strong thrust of progress."

The President said: "Our nation's industries, shops and farms — our workers, owners of business, professional men and women — prosper today far beyond the dream of any people, anytime, anywhere."

The President made some other points:

"Recessions are not inevitable."

"We have learned how to achieve prosperity."

"Our prosperity does not depend on our military effort."

"Our defense needs are great; but our growth is far greater."

"In only seven other countries of the world is total output in a year as large as the increase in our output last year."

"I am unwilling to declare a moratorium on our progress toward the Great Society."

"Expansion need not generate inflation."

Throughout the message and the economic report, nevertheless, there was repeated emphasis on holding the line against inflation.

Johnson told labor and indus-

Designed To Halt Spread

President Offers A-Weapons Plan

GENEVA (AP) — President Johnson formally proposed today a seven-point program to halt the spread of nuclear weapons.

The President acted in the face of escalating war in Southeast Asia and the possibility of acquiring atomic weapons by at least 10 nations in addition to the existing atomic powers.

In a message to the 17-nation disarmament conference opening in Geneva, Johnson urged that the atomic arms race be stopped and that existing stockpiles eventually be eliminated.

Pope Paul VI also sent an urgent appeal to the conferees to do their utmost to erase the spectre of war.

Johnson pledged to work for peace and disarmament "even while our own nation is engaged in necessary resistance to aggression in Southeast Asia."

"We must press on with our work in Geneva," the President's message said. "It is true that our meeting is shadowed by continuing aggression against the people and government of South Viet Nam.

"There are differences among the members of this conference on Viet Nam, but these differences make our common interest in preventing nuclear spread and curbing the nuclear arms race all the more important to pursue."

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant's representative delivered the Pope's message at the resumption of the negotiations here today.

"It is becoming more and more obvious that no lasting peace can be established until there has been an effective, general and controlled reduction in armament," the message said.

The talks resumed with a flicker of hope.

The United States and the Soviet Union, cochairmen and major antagonists in the 4-year-old discussions, seem to have moved a bit closer to each other during the four-month recess of the conference.

In disarmament discussions in the U.N. General Assembly in New York, both sides have warned that time for agreement soon may run out. They have drawn a grim picture of the threat of a spread of atomic arms.

New Tactics To Choke Off Filibuster Set

Mansfield Seeking More Pressure On Foes Of Shop Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield switched to new tactics today — longer hours — in an attempt to counter the filibuster against the bill to prevent states from banning union shop contracts.

Mansfield called the senators in two hours earlier than usual to try to put some additional pressure on the tightly organized foes of the bill.

The same plan was tried unsuccessfully last fall in the initial Senate floor fight over the measure to repeal section 14B of the Taft-Hartley law.

Mansfield's problem is: He has the votes to pass the bill if it ever gets to a vote, but lacks the two-thirds majority it needed to choke off the filibuster.

Under Senate rules each member is entitled to two speeches on Mansfield's motion now before the Senate to take up the repeal bill.

But Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen says he has at least 25 foes of the measure organized into speaking teams against the motion.

This means 50 speeches and, at the rate of two or three a day, the filibuster could be carried on for much more time than Mansfield plans to devote to the bill.

Southern Democrats were prepared to carry on the talkfest today.

Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., in a prepared speech, said Congress was wasting its time on the bill "while labor-management problems of far greater importance to the whole country go unnoticed.

Reasons Seen Vanished For Bombing Lull

Gen. Taylor Says 'We Must Keep The Pressure On Reds'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, a top adviser to President Johnson, says the reasons for continuing the lull in the bombing of North Viet Nam targets are exhausted and "we must keep the pressure on."

His declaration was viewed as one of the strongest indications yet that the United States soon will resume its air strikes.

Taylor, former ambassador to Saigon who now is a presidential consultant on Viet Nam, was at the President's side Tuesday night during a top-level White House meeting with congressional leaders.

Less than 24 hours later, Taylor told a New York news conference that he felt the bombing pause was justified "in spite of the obvious military disadvantages."

"We have shown friends and foes the sincerity of our peaceful purposes," he said.

"But the reasons for continuing it are exhausted."

He said, "We must keep the pressure on until the other side decides that there is no chance of our breaking."

Earlier in Washington, Secretary of State Dean Rusk said on Capitol Hill that the United States has carried its peace efforts "from A to Z and almost through Z."

Democratic Senate Leader Mike Mansfield, who has opposed renewal of air attacks on North Viet Nam targets, credited the President with having accomplished at the Tuesday night meeting the kind of consultation with Congress that some critics have been demanding.

123 Others Captured

Allied Units Kill 91 Of Viet Cong

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Allied forces reported today 91 Viet Cong were killed and at least 123 captured in their first sizable clashes since the end of the lunar New Year truce four days ago.

The South Vietnamese army's 9th Regiment struck the hardest single blow in a surprise attack on a Viet Cong training camp in the upper reaches of the Mekong Delta near the Cambodian border.

A government spokesman said 14 hardcore guerrillas were killed and 114 captured, including a training chief. The government troops also seized 117 suspects, many of them thought to be new recruits, and a batch of weapons and ammunition.

The 9th Division carried off the strike Wednesday morning by sending a spearhead of infantrymen into the camp 80 miles southwests of Saigon while another regiment in armored personnel carriers blocked the enemy retreat. Government casualties were reported light.

A South Korean platoon patroling Route 1, the main north-south highway, bumped into a force of about 70 Reds Wednesday night near Bong Son, 275 miles northeast of Saigon. In the fight 35 Viet Cong were killed, two captured and two carbines seized while the Koreans took only light casualties, a spokesman said.

The U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division, operating in the same coastal plains as the Koreans, reported 27 Viet Cong killed and 78 suspects and eight tons of Communist rice stores seized.

U.S. Marines on similar missions outside the sprawling Da Nang military complex, 380 miles northeast of Saigon, counted seven Viet Cong dead and three captured. Three of the guerrillas were hit when the Leathernecks exploded grenades in a large tunnel, which also yielded three Soviet and two American rifles.

But 20 to 30 guerrillas caught

Enlistments In Reserves, Guard Halted

Siphoning Of Men Available To Draft Quotas Restricted

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new order restricting enlistment of draftees in the National Guard and Reserves is aimed at halting the siphoning of men available for filling draft quotas, defense officials said today.

The Guard and Reserves have other manpower sources available to them without drawing on youths already tapped for induction, the officials said.

This was the explanation given in response to questions about a Selective Service bulletin instructing local draft boards that young men under orders for induction no longer shall be allowed to sign up for the Guard and Reserves.

By joining the Army Guard or Reserves, a young man can escape two years of active duty. Instead, he serves only from four to 10 months in uniform getting his basic training and then, as a civilian, performs the remainder of his obligation, totaling six years, by drilling with his Guard or Reserve unit.

The Selective Service bulletin, distributed last week, permits cancellation of induction orders only for youths enlisting in the regular Army, Navy, Marines or Air Force.

The Defense Department said: It was recognized "that Selective Service boards had some problem in their pipeline process with people scheduled for induction who were siphoned off by enlistment into the Re-

After Harrisburg Meeting

Hope Rises For Solution In Midland's Air Problem

A solution appears near to the air pollution problem which has plagued the community for some time, Midland Council was informed at its meeting Wednesday night in the Borough Building.

The encouraging report came from members of Council's Smoke Control Committee, who met earlier this week at Harrisburg with John G. Cleland, an engineer with the Pennsylvania State Air Control Commission.

THE COMMITTEE — Joseph D'Alesio, chairman, Raymond Presutti and William Shovlin—was to have met with members of the commission, but the session was canceled because of the heavy snow. The meeting with Cleland was then arranged.

D'Alesio told Council last night that Cleland had informed the committee that "Crucible (Crucible Steel Co.) has submitted a plan for controlling smoke that is discharged from its Midland Works."

Cleland told the committee he was not at liberty to reveal details at present "since the law protects companies in such situations because of competition with other manufacturers."

He declared, however, D'Alesio said, "that once the plan is accepted Crucible will be responsible for seeing that it is carried out or answer to the commission."

"We are optimistic that the residents of Midland soon will be freed of the blight that hovers over them," D'Alesio continued.

PRESUTTI informed Council that the Crucible proposal will be discussed further Feb. 7 at Harrisburg when Richard H. Zinn, Region III Control Engineer, presents the plan to the commission.

It was suggested by Presutti that Zinn be asked to appear at the Feb. 24 meeting of Council so he may be questioned about Crucible's plan.

Council approved the request and authorized a letter be sent asking Zinn to appear.

D'Alesio informed Council that Pete Pietraudrea, representative of District 20 of the United Steelworkers, and John Uccellini, chairman of legislation of Local 1212 of the USW, were present at the Harrisburg session Monday.

Curtis F. Henry, a sanitarian for the Pennsylvania State Department of Health, arrived too late for the formal meeting of Council because of car trouble. He had been invited to appear relative to problems touched off by Midland and area residents mixing garbage and trash and taking it to the dump.

ALTHOUGH too late for the meeting, Henry informed William Vinovich Sr., Council president, who was still in the chambers, "This is a grave problem that must be solved at once. Nearly 75 per cent of the refuse at the dump is garbage. This is a threat to the health of the people living near by.

"We are constantly getting complaints of the burning of rubbish with garbage mixed in it. The garbage also attracts rats," he concluded.

Vinovich assured Henry that Tony Wayne, engineer for the

Bell Opposed In Party Race

Countian To Seek District GOP Job

A Columbiana County resident filed today with the County Election Board to oppose Robert Bell of Steubenville, incumbent, for Republican State Central Committeeman in the 18th Congressional District.

Robert A. Edwards of 303 Herbster St., Columbiana, entered his petition this morning, asking a ballot place in the May primaries. He is a plant engineer at the Kaiser Chemical Co. in Columbiana.

Bell filed earlier for the post. He also has been mentioned as one of his party's candidates for state senator in the new 30th State Senatorial District.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Letha Astry of Salem entered for a new term as woman member of the GOP State Central Committee from the 18th District. A housewife and a veteran Republican leader, she is a member of the State Bridge Commission.

Mrs. Astry was the last of four district party officials to file for new terms. In addition to Bell, those who entered earlier were Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, Democratic state central committeeman from the 18th District, and Miss Esther Pinsky of St. Clairsville, woman member of the Democratic state committee from the 18th District.

$15,000 Loss Seen As Fire Sweeps Barn

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a barn and its contents valued at about $15,000 on the Columbiana - Middleton Rd. early today.

The barn, which covered an area of 3,600 square feet, was located on the Homer Royer farm, which recently had been sold to Phares Witmer, now residing in Virginia. Witmer reportedly purchased the farm for his son, David, who resides in the Columbiana area.

Mrs. Royer awoke at 3:30 a.m. to discover the blaze and called Columbiana firemen. The firemen, who remained on the scene until 5 a.m., prevented the blaze from spreading to the nearby farm house.

Included in the loss, reported partially insured, were about 2,000 bales of hay and a farm wagon. The milk house recently constructed onto the barn also was leveled.

There was no livestock in the barn.

Facts Distorted, Embassy Says

U.S. Embassy Sent Mott Razor Blade, Reds Claim

MOSCOW (AP)—Moscow Radio asserted today the U.S. Embassy had not exhausted bail or exchange possibilities in the case of Newcomb Mott and furnished the razor blade with which he cut his throat. The embassy called the account "a rather distorted version of the facts."

The broadcast said Mott, 27, received the razor blade in a package of personal effects from the embassy. An embassy spokesman retorted that the Russians still have not identified the instrument that made the fatal wound.

The embassy also showed irritation at the charge regarding bail and an exchange of prisoners. Mott, from Sheffield, Mass., died Jan. 20 on a Soviet train taking him from a Murmansk jail to a labor camp to complete an 18-month sentence for entering the Soviet Union illegally.

The spokesman declared the embassy had exhausted all possibilities in an attempt to get Mott released on bail.

The embassy has refused to accept or reject the Soviet suicide explanation pending the outcome of a full investigation promised by the Russians.

Moscow Radio said Mott was in a compartment of a prisoner train and had beat himself against the walls before cutting his own throat in a "state of violent nervous disorder."

Mott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mott, have said they think the Russians murdered their son.

The embassy, meanwhile, took possession of the body of Mott, a book company salesman arrested last Sept. 4. The body will be shipped home by plane Friday night.

$37,000 Fire Hits Pittsburgh Towboat

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Fire caused an estimated $37,000 damage Wednesday night to a twin-diesel towboat moored in the Ohio River off Pittsburgh's North Side.

The blaze started in the galley of the Kilbuck, owned by Crain Brothers, Inc., and wasn't brought under control for two hours.

Battalion Fire Chief Charles Harris, who estimated the damage, said the cause was undetermined.

$15,000 Loss Seen As Fire Sweeps Barn

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a barn and its contents valued at about $15,000 on the Columbiana - Middleton Rd. early today.

The barn, which covered an area of 3,600 square feet, was located on the Homer Royer farm, which recently had been sold to Phares Witmer, now residing in Virginia. Witmer reportedly purchased the farm for his son, David, who resides in the Columbiana area.

Mrs. Royer awoke at 3:30 a.m. to discover the blaze and called Columbiana firemen. The firemen, who remained on the scene until 5 a.m., prevented the blaze from spreading to the nearby farm house.

Included in the loss, reported partially insured, were about 2,000 bales of hay and a farm wagon. The milk house recently constructed onto the barn also was leveled.

There was no livestock in the barn.

Facts Distorted, Embassy Says

U.S. Embassy Sent Mott Razor Blade, Reds Claim

MOSCOW (AP)—Moscow Radio asserted today the U.S. Embassy had not exhausted bail or exchange possibilities in the case of Newcomb Mott and furnished the razor blade with which he cut his throat. The embassy called the account "a rather distorted version of the facts."

The broadcast said Mott, 27, received the razor blade in a package of personal effects from the embassy. An embassy spokesman retorted that the Russians still have not identified the instrument that made the fatal wound.

The embassy also showed irritation at the charge regarding bail and an exchange of prisoners. Mott, from Sheffield, Mass., died Jan. 20 on a Soviet train taking him from a Murmansk jail to a labor camp to complete an 18-month sentence for entering the Soviet Union illegally.

The spokesman declared the embassy had exhausted all possibilities in an attempt to get Mott released on bail.

The embassy has refused to accept or reject the Soviet suicide explanation pending the outcome of a full investigation promised by the Russians.

Moscow Radio said Mott was in a compartment of a prisoner train and had beat himself against the walls before cutting his own throat in a "state of violent nervous disorder."

Mott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mott, have said they think the Russians murdered their son.

The embassy, meanwhile, took possession of the body of Mott, a book company salesman arrested last Sept. 4. The body will be shipped home by plane Friday night.

But Don't Expect Any Help

State Secretary Rusk again has hoped wishfully for European military help against the enemy in Viet Nam. Again he has been greeted with significant silence.

No help is forthcoming from Europe.

The only help forthcoming from Asia is from South Korea.

There is no shortage of sympathy for U.S. attempts to open negotiations for peace. But there is no response to U.S. invitations to send troops to Viet Nam. Technical aid, yes. Troops, no.

This has become one of the curiosities of what is one of the most curious wars of all time. Balance-of-power politics forces governments to line up pro and con when fighting erupts. They want to be with the winning side. In any event, they do no want to offend the sensibilities of a power that might be in a position to hurt them sometime.

But the United States is fighting without allies. And more significant than its lack of allies is the layer-by-layer composition of the enemy.

The first layer is the Viet Cong, indigenous to South Viet Nam and indistinguishable from the South Vietnamese.

The second layer is North Viet Nam, which already is furnishing supplies and manpower but has not thrown itself wholly into the war, despite Secretary Rusk's insistence that it is waging the war and would have to be the other party to negotiations to stop the war.

The third layer is the Chinese People's Republic, now known to be furnishing planes and pilots to North Viet Nam, though these have not been sent into combat. Neither have any Chinese troops been committed to combat.

The fourth layer is the Soviet Union, which most assuredly would feel obligated to line up with Asia in any definitive showdown on that continent with the United States in what purports to be a war against Communism.

The fifth layer, still problematic, would be composed of European and Asiatic powers that might think the time had come to line up against the dominant power. That's the game of power-balancing politics—to gang up against the nation threatening to get too strong for comfort. The Viet Cong has many potential allies.

High Cost Of The Cities

How much do U.S. taxpayers in general owe U.S. cities in particular?

All of us can start answering this question soon. Special aid for specific cities is another multi-billion proposed addition to the Johnson administration's Great Society program.

Do you have questions about this feature of the program?

Do you, as a resident in a community whose public transportation is provided by a profit-making company, think the U.S. Treasury should be tapped to maintain an unrealistic 15-cent subway fare in New York City?

Do you, as a private citizen providing transportation at his own expense, with no tax deductibility, think it is your patriotic duty to pay a subsidy for the less-than-cost services of a municipally owned bus and rapid transit system somewhere else?

Do you believe as an auto owner and operator that an inordinate share of taxes on auto fuel should be channeled into the fantastic cost of keeping cities that already are too large from strangling in more and more traffic as they grow larger?

Do you think it is the duty of citizens elsewhere to make it possible for hundreds of thousands of potential voters with no means of support to be herded into the nation's largest cities and maintained on relief rolls—all for the effect of their mass vote on election day?

Questions like these must be asked if the Great Society is going to require specific help to meet the day-to-day operating expenses of unwieldly masses of population jam-packed into cities already scandalously overcroweded.

It is possible to rationalize the use of federal funds to underwrite capital improvements that would add to urban livability. But there can be no rationalization for spending public money to worsen conditions that already are intolerable in some of the nation's largest cities.

A clear distinction between capital improvements and paying operating deficits should be made and maintained. Taxpayers in general do not owe it to New York to help pay subway fares to Chicago to keep its slums filled with grateful recipients of welfare payments.

Letter From Max

Dear Truman Twill:

This is going to be about our mutual friend Bill, who died a few days ago.

Bill was a newspaperman for 40 years whom the reading public hardly ever heard of in his line of duty. But as a telegraph editor, his judgment and skill had a lot to do with what newspaper readers read, both in his choice of stories, the way they were played and in his skill in writing headlines.

A fellow worker once referred to such editorial deskmen as the cogs who make the wheels turn in our profession.

One of the few bylines Bill ever had was when as a young reporter he interviewed William Jennings Bryan in Des Moines, Ia. The paper was only too glad to put Bill's name on the story because his middle name was Bryan.

As a telegraph editor, he trained two generations of young deskmen. Many of them kept in touch with him down through the years after they had moved on to other papers.

Every year or so, he would be visited at his home by former colleagues who worked for the New York Times, St. Louis Post Dispatch, the Miami (Fla.) Herald and so on.

He had several stock phrases he had picked up in his years in the business. He would cast aside dull stories with the comment, "It reads like the telephone directory," or "Horse drops dead in Afghanistan, so what," or "The writer sucked this story out of his thumb."

To judge and edit the news, he had to be in a walking compendium of many fields of knowledge and public affairs, but he would kid himself by admitting, "I find mistakes in the dictionary every day."

What many people would consider trivial were important to him in his craft. He was a perfectionist. His integrity was unquestioned.

He was proud of his alma mater, the University of Illinois, and steadfastly wagered on their football team with office associates, good years and bad years. Bill was no fair-weather friend. He was with you all the way.

He always knew the difference in the spelling of the first names of British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain and of British diplomat Nevile Henderson.

He knew the proper spelling of a whole list of Catharines, Catherines, Katharines and Kathrines, and especially that it should always be Katharine Hepburn. Also that it was Fredric March, not Frederick.

For years, he carried in his billfold a list of hard-to-spell words, such as rarefy, liquefy, kimono and ukulele. Begininers working under him soon learned to check on uncertainties rather than risk his scorn. But he always praised good work.

He was a Marine in World War I and during World War II gave blood regularly to the Red Cross and served on a draft board. He also was a blood donor for friends in need and their families.

His apparent toughness was only skin deep. After his retirement, he took daily walks of up to two or three miles and when asked if he carried a cane to protect himself from dogs along the way he replied, "No I take a few dog biscuits with me, and I've made friends with all of them."

One of the first things he did the morning he died was to make sure there was feed in the bird feeder in his yard.

I can hear him now saying, "Miller you're quite a sob sister," but his eyes would be misty, too.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

Times Have Changed

By Joseph R. Slevin

It's been 20 years since Congress passed the Employment Act of 1946 and there's going to be a day-long celebration Feb. 23.

It used to be a deeply controversial law but it is pretty much taken for granted now. The sponsors wanted to call it the Full Employment Act and the measure's opponents scored one of their biggest victories when they succeeded in knocking out that dangerous word "full."

People were still fighting against using the power of the government to keep the country prosperous in those days — as some still are. Cutting taxes to stimulate the economy or raising taxes to curb a boom seem like fairly reasonable tactics now but they sounded like way-out ideas in 1946 and for many years afterward.

The Employment Act's biggest breakthrough came from a few words that commit the U.S. to seeking "maximum employment, production, and purchasing power." For the last 20 years, the Presidents of the United States have been responding by giving the country annual reports on what they are doing to reach those goals.

In this year's economic report to Congress President Johnson predicted that national production will climb to a new peak of $722 billion and the unemployment will fall below an "interim" goal of 4 per cent.

He was at pains to tell the country what his administration is doing to prevent the inflationary boom that is lurking just beyond the horizon — for relative price stability has come to be accepted as a goal along with the prosperity objectives of maximum employment, production and purchasing power.

The President has the help of a three-man Council of Economic Advisers in preparing his economic program and Congress has the aid of its Joint Economic Committee in appraising the presidential recommendations. The economic report this year, as in most years, will touch off a national economic policy discussion —if not a debate—and there will be some eight days of congressional hearings.

People will come from all over the country to attend the 20th anniversary celebration scheduled for Feb. 23.

Presidents of banks and of industrial corporations, college professors, union leaders and politicians have written to say they will be on hand. There will be learned papers, speeches, and messages from former Presidents Eisenhower and Truman. Johnson will have a message, too, and the current word is that he expects to go to the Hilton to deliver it himself.

Story Of Hoffa's Real Ulcers

By Victor Riesel

Some years ago Jimmy Hoffa sprinted swiftly up the hot sands of Miami Beach. There was no one in pursuit.

He was racing from a rumor. A doctor had been called into his posh hotel suite, and the boys began whispering about a heart attack. So Jimmy H. did some beach work to prove he was in good shape and disprove a rumor.

Victor Riesel

But in recent years the iron man's innards have developed a little rust. Quietly he slipped in and out of Georgetown University Hospital. Stealthily he consulted doctors and heeded them far more than he did his lawyers.

The other day the terrible-tempered Teamsters' chief's ulcers betrayed him on the inside as he fears every man will on the outside. There was massive bleeding, it was reported. But why now?

Virtually all of Hoffa's counter-offensives against the government have failed.

Hoffa, doing what comes naturally, had gone for the jugular. He has not counted heavily on the appeals court or even the Supreme Court to keep him free of prison terms stretching onto 13 years. With the imagination and the abundance of daring which could have made him the world's most powerful labor leader, Hoffa long ago decided to smash the opposition at its source — right inside the Justice Department.

LITTLE OF THIS behind-the-scenes campaign has reached the public. Methodically, Hoffa pressured congressmen into calling for a probe of the attorney general and the department itself.

Considerable sums were spent through the Teamsters' political machine. Documents were prepared. Massive "evidence" was compiled. Material, which would have taken any congressional office months to gather was packaged and put in the hands of House members friendly to the Teamsters.

Some 25 congressmen were lined up for the offensive. At this writing, 13 of them publicly have attacked the Justice Department.

Almost all of them zeroed in on the department's use of a big, tough, muscled Teamster with a grim sheet (record) in the police files of his home city, Baton Rouge, La. He is Ed Partin. His background would delight a criminologist's study in the psychiatry of violence.

HOFFA, OF COURSE, had been intimately aware of Partin's character when he had summoned the Baton Rouge Teamsters' official to his side during the Chattanooga jury-tampering trial.

But Partin double-crossed him and testified for the government.

As every district attorney knows, the use of such men as Partin is standard operating procedure for prosecution wherever it is fortunate enough to penetrate the defendant's camp.

But along came congressmen from New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Texas, among other states, and blasted the Justice Department. In the lead was Rep. Kenneth Gray of Illinois. He denounced the Justice Department for making a deal. He was followed by other solons who used his long analysis. They resorted to such words as "bribe" throwing a "protective cloak" over a criminal, "tender solicitude," etc.

They demanded an investigation of the Justice Department.

From the indignation of the congressional friend of Hoffa, one would have thought that Betsy Ross' gray head and star-studded creation had been desecrated.

Hoffa did think he would have the entire case reworked by a congressional committee under TV lights and the coverage by hundreds of newsmen.

ALL THIS as the Supreme Court and the appeals benches were considering his bids.

He was elated when he learned there would be an investigation of the Justice Department by the House Judiciary Committee.

Then he got word — which was confirmed by this column — that the probe would go into the "civil liberties front."

"It could some day reach into the Hoffa case," said Judiciary Committee Chairman Emanuel Celler. "But until his appeals have been definitely concluded, I won't touch the case with a hundred-foot pole."

As for the congressmen, they've lost their enthusiasm, too.

"Some Teamster locals in my district brought the matter to my attention," Rep. Gray told this newsman. "I did my duty as a citizen. I reported the matter to the Congress. Now I'm finished with it. I don't intend to do another thing about it.

"It's not my responsibility to ride herd on the Justice Department. I'm too busy. My other committee is planning a permanent home for the vice president. So you see I can't follow the Hoffa thing through, nor do I intend to do anything more about it."

Driver 'Skids' Into Question

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I have just arrived home in Chester this p.m. (Jan. 24) after an almost pleasant trip of 300 miles from Rochester, N. Y., driving the Thruway, secondary routes and state highways, finally the new Freeway into East Liverpool on which I slid into the last lap of my journey home.

We did not slide once because roads were well cleared until entering the new Freeway, and expressly the section within the city limits of East Liverpool. When I saw the truck ahead of us start to slide and knew my turn was soon to come, I could hardly believe what I was seeing.

It was actually laughable to think we had traveled for six hours through snow 20 to 24 inches deep so safely and now had reason to become frenzied so close to home.

The final blow was driving up our home street in Chester and being able barely to find room on our plowed path to stop the car and unpack. Now came the big problem, what to do with 'ol trusty, who had brought us through. Of course, we could expect to dig into our own garage — that's our responsibility.

But who's responsibility is it that such lethargy shows so badly in our whole district? Is it catching? Don't we believe snow removing equipment works as well here as it does in New York, Pennsylvania and northern Ohio? Is it a case of everyone's business is no one's, or don't we care how we compare with others?

Now if this lethargy is an attitude, can we expect to interest new industry or even persuade our old faithful ones of our being a progressive community?

The section from which I started by trip is the section that recently went through the blackout and before that race riots, very admirably. What would we here do in a real emergency?

Shall we pause and take stock?

Calcutta Road Work Lauded

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

On Monday at 4 p.m., I left my home, by car. Outward and homeward bound by different routes, I found no place — and I mean no place — outside the Calcutta limits that could compare with the road surface conditions this energetic crew had created.

St. Clair Ave. and the old Route 30 surfaces were clear and dry. To do this very heavy task with limited equipment in such a short space of time must surely prove the zest these men put into their work. The comparison was so noticeable, inasmuch that in other places traveling conditions were treacherous, with snow and ice everywhere and people still working hard clearing snow.

I wonder, could this differentiation be know-how? To the Calcutta road crew, I say again thanks. To the Calcutta volunteer fire brigade and to you also, Mr. Mailman, I tend thanks. All of you do a wonderful job the year around.

Nobody sings your praises, but here's one old codger who will always remember your efforts. To the residents of Calcutta, I say, be grateful for such service. These men, all of them, are worthy of their place in our community.

Opposes Shooting Of Pigeons

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

The other afternoon some one shot a B.B. through one of my windows.

I feel sure it was done by boys shooting at pigeons, and the police officer who investigated agreed with me.

I love birds and animals of all kinds. Everyone who knows me knows that I spend a good bit of time and money feeding and caring for them. It is my nature to want to protect helpless things instead of wanting to destroy and kill them.

I am a property owner, a taxpayer and a voter.

I most certainly do not approve of shooting pigeons, whether it is done by boys with B.B. guns or by officers with special type firearms — and I intend to do everything I can to help prevent it.

Lawrenceville Complaint Made

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

A group of mothers went up to the bus stop and shoveled the snow away from the shelter. There had been nothing done up there at all.

They have about half enough buses. The buses for the Lawrenceville area are overcrowded and some of the children have to stand every day.

The children from the lower part of Lawrenceville walk about three-fourths of a mile. They have only one bus stop, yet in Johnsonville they have three stops.

Lawrenceville is larger than Johnsonville. Why can't we have more stops here? What is the matter with Hancock County? We have all kinds of taxes, including a road tax.

The roads are never in decent shape, but when it snows it is terrible. They make one trip with the scraper, two or three days after the snow, and that's that.

Also, it is almost impossible to get a dog catcher up here. We pay taxes in Lawrenceville. Don't they mean anything?

But Don't Expect Any Help

State Secretary Rusk again has hoped wishfully for European military help against the enemy in Viet Nam. Again he has been greeted with significant silence.

No help is forthcoming from Europe.

The only help forthcoming from Asia is from South Korea.

There is no shortage of sympathy for U.S. attempts to open negotiations for peace. But there is no response to U.S. invitations to send troops to Viet Nam. Technical aid, yes. Troops, no.

This has become one of the curiosities of what is one of the most curious wars of all time. Balance-of-power politics forces governments to line up pro and con when fighting erupts. They want to be with the winning side. In any event, they do no want to offend the sensibilities of a power that might be in a position to hurt them sometime.

But the United States is fighting without allies. And more significant than its lack of allies is the layer-by-layer composition of the enemy.

The first layer is the Viet Cong, indigenous to South Viet Nam and indistinguishable from the South Vietnamese.

The second layer is North Viet Nam, which already is furnishing supplies and manpower but has not thrown itself wholly into the war, despite Secretary Rusk's insistence that it is waging the war and would have to be the other party to negotiations to stop the war.

The third layer is the Chinese People's Republic, now known to be furnishing planes and pilots to North Viet Nam, though these have not been sent into combat. Neither have any Chinese troops been committed to combat.

The fourth layer is the Soviet Union, which most assuredly would feel obligated to line up with Asia in any definitive showdown on that continent with the United States in what purports to be a war against Communism.

The fifth layer, still problematic, would be composed of European and Asiatic powers that might think the time had come to line up against the dominant power. That's the game of power-balancing politics—to gang up against the nation threatening to get too strong for comfort. The Viet Cong has many potential allies.

High Cost Of The Cities

How much do U.S. taxpayers in general owe U.S. cities in particular?

All of us can start answering this question soon. Special aid for specific cities is another multi-billion proposed addition to the Johnson administration's Great Society program.

Do you have questions about this feature of the program?

Do you, as a resident in a community whose public transportation is provided by a profit-making company, think the U.S. Treasury should be tapped to maintain an unrealistic 15-cent subway fare in New York City?

Do you think it is the duty of citizens elsewhere to make it possible for hundreds of thousands of potential voters with no means of support to be herded into the nation's largest cities and maintained on relief rolls—all for the effect of their mass vote on election day?

Questions like these must be asked if the Great Society is going to require specific help to meet the day-to-day operating expenses of unwieldly masses of population jam-packed into cities already scandalously overcroweded.

It is possible to rationalize the use of federal funds to underwrite capital improvements that would add to urban livability. But there can be no rationalization for spending public money to worsen conditions that already are intolerable in some of the nation's largest cities.

A clear distinction between capital improvements and paying operating deficits should be made and maintained. Taxpayers in general do not owe it to New York to help pay subway fares to Chicago to keep its slums filled with grateful recipients of welfare payments.

Driver 'Skids' Into Question

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I have just arrived home in Chester this p.m. (Jan. 24) after an almost pleasant trip of 300 miles from Rochester, N. Y., driving the Thruway, secondary routes and state highways, finally the new Freeway into East Liverpool on which I slid into the last lap of my journey home.

We did not slide once because roads were well cleared until entering the new Freeway, and expressly the section within the city limits of East Liverpool. When I saw the truck ahead of us start to slide and knew my turn was soon to come, I could hardly believe what I was seeing.

It was actually laughable to think we had traveled for six hours through snow 20 to 24 inches deep so safely and now had reason to become frenzied so close to home.

The final blow was driving up our home street in Chester and being able barely to find room on our plowed path to stop the car and unpack. Now came the big problem, what to do with 'ol trusty, who had brought us through. Of course, we could expect to dig into our own garage — that's our responsibility.

But who's responsibility is it that such lethargy shows so badly in our whole district? Is it catching? Don't we believe snow removing equipment works as well here as it does in New York, Pennsylvania and northern Ohio? Is it a case of everyone's business is no one's, or don't we care how we compare with others?

Now if this lethargy is an attitude, can we expect to interest new industry or even persuade our old faithful ones of our being a progressive community?

The section from which I started by trip is the section that recently went through the blackout and before that race riots, very admirably. What would we here do in a real emergency?

Shall we pause and take stock?

Calcutta Road Work Lauded

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

On Monday at 4 p.m., I left my home, by car. Outward and homeward bound by different routes, I found no place — and I mean no place — outside the Calcutta limits that could compare with the road surface conditions this energetic crew had created.

St. Clair Ave. and the old Route 30 surfaces were clear and dry. To do this very heavy task with limited equipment in such a short space of time must surely prove the zest these men put into their work. The comparison was so noticeable, inasmuch that in other places traveling conditions were treacherous, with snow and ice everywhere and people still working hard clearing snow.

I wonder, could this differentiation be know-how? To the Calcutta road crew, I say again thanks. To the Calcutta volunteer fire brigade and to you also, Mr. Mailman, I tend thanks. All of you do a wonderful job the year around.

Nobody sings your praises, but here's one old codger who will always remember your efforts. To the residents of Calcutta, I say, be grateful for such service. These men, all of them, are worthy of their place in our community.

Opposes Shooting Of Pigeons

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

The other afternoon some one shot a B.B. through one of my windows.

I feel sure it was done by boys shooting at pigeons, and the police officer who investigated agreed with me.

I love birds and animals of all kinds. Everyone who knows me knows that I spend a good bit of time and money feeding and caring for them. It is my nature to want to protect helpless things instead of wanting to destroy and kill them.

I am a property owner, a taxpayer and a voter.

I most certainly do not approve of shooting pigeons, whether it is done by boys with B.B. guns or by officers with special type firearms—and I intend to do everything I can to help prevent it.

Lawrenceville Complaint Made

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

A group of mothers went up to the bus stop and shoveled the snow away from the shelter. There had been nothing done up there at all.

They have about half enough buses. The buses for the Lawrenceville area are overcrowded and some of the children have to stand every day.

The children from the lower part of Lawrenceville walk about three-fourths of a mile. They have only one bus stop, yet in Johnsonville they have three stops.

Lawrenceville is larger than Johnsonville. Why can't we have more stops here? What is the matter with Hancock County? We have all kinds of taxes, including a road tax.

The roads are never in decent shape, but when it snows it is terrible. They make one trip with the scraper, two or three days after the snow, and that's that.

Also, it is almost impossible to get a dog catcher up here. We pay taxes in Lawrenceville. Don't they mean anything?

serve-Guard, while on the other hand there are otherwise adequate manpower supplies for fulfilling Reserve-Guard requirements."

Currently, there was a backlog of 94,000 young men awaiting their four to 10 months of basic training after signing up with the Guard and Reserve.

Until that backlog eases many of these young men will undergo no training other than a sort of stopgap drilling provided by their Guard or Reserve units.

The backlog results from the heavy increase in the regular Army. Recruits for the regular service have priority in training at the various bases, leaving relatively few spaces for Guard and Reserve enlistees.

Too Much, Too Late

Highlights From Report On Economy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are some textual highlights from President Johnson's economic report to Congress today:

VIET NAM

The economic cost of Viet Nam imposes no unbearable burden on our resources . . . Production for Viet Nam accounts for less than 1½ per cent of our GNP . . . Our prosperity does not depend on our military effort.

ECONOMIC POLICY

To attain full employment without inflation . . . to use fiscal and monetary policies to help to match total demand to our growing productive potential . . . to maintain and enhance healthy competition . . . to achieve national purposes as far as possible by enlisting the voluntary cooperation of business, labor and other groups.

ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

Demand will continue to grow rapidly in 1966 and production will respond . . . The vigor of investment spending demonstrates strong business confidence . . . The rising defense needs of the federal government are an important new force in the economy . . . State and local purchases will keep moving ahead . . . Rising consumer incomes will again largely be devoted to expenditures for better living.

COST-PRICE STABILITY

The vigorous economy we foresee in 1966 will tempt labor unions to demand wage increase...and business to raise prices. Labor must remember that growing employment and productivity are the foundation of higher wages, and business that an expanding economy is the basic source of profit gains. These foundations must not be jeopardized.

Judge Rejects New Trial Bid

CINCINNATI (AP)—A request for a new trial for John D. Jeffre, director of sports promotion for Xavier University, on a drunkenness charge was turned down Wednesday by Municipal Court Judge William N. Novelace.

Police said Jeffre, 51, was the driver of a car which struck three girls, killing one of them, at a downtown intersection Nov. 11. He was convicted of drunkenness Dec. 1 and sentenced to three days and fined $25.

In the new trial motion, Jeffre's attorney argued that a U.S. Supreme Court decision held that addiction was an illness and not subject to penalty other than compulsory medical treatment.

Jeffre, who remains free under $2,700 bond, is also charged with manslaughter, which is pending before the grand jury.

Boy, 17, Loses Eye In Scuffle With Girl

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 17-year-old junior at East Technical High School lost his right eye Wednesday during a scuffle with a girl classmate during a typing class, police reported.

Michael Hudson underwent surgery at St. Vincent Charity Hospital in an effort to save his eye. He was reported in good condition Wednesday night.

Police said Michael identified his assailant as a girl classmate and said he thought he had been stabbed in the eye with a pen. Officers said the scuffle followed an incident in which Michael was said to have made remarks about the girl's clothing.

Woman Files For Alabama Governor Bid

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Mrs. Ralph (Shorty) Price, whose husband has run unsuccessfully for public office several times, became the first woman in Alabama history to run for governor when she filed qualifying papers with Secretary of State Agenes Baggett.

Some politicians considered Mrs. Price's announcement Wednesday a takeoff on the possible candidacy of Gov. George Wallace's wife, Lurleen.

Mrs. Price issued a statement saying, "Shorty will be at my right hand and I'll consult him on everything" during the campaign.

Wallace has said he will campaign with Mrs. Wallace as a speaker and adviser if she runs.

Common Potato Due In Orbit On Scientific Trip

DETROIT (AP) — A common potato that sells for pennies a pound is going to be carried into space soon by a multimillion-dollar rocket to search for what scientists hope will be a key to a biological mystery.

Hoping to discover that key, Space Defense Corp. in suburban Birmingham, Mich., in conjunction with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, plans to orbit the potato within the next two years.

The high-flying potato project has been christened "Spudnik."

Bruce Pinc, a biologist with Space Defense Corp., says "the possibilities of this thing are enormous. If Spudnik accomplishes what we expect, its potential in the study of the entire area of biological science is staggering."

Spudnik is designed to probe what Pinc calls the "riddle of biorythmicity, one of the five most important questions in biological science."

Middle, Upper Bracket Paychecks Due 'Break'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's proposal for graduated withholding of personal income taxes probably will be modified to reduce the bite on middle-and upper-bracket paychecks before the legislation goes to the House floor.

This was the outlook today as the House Ways and Means Committee resumed hearings on Johnson's $4.8-billion tax package, of which graduated withholding is a part. Major components of it are a reimposition, for two years, of automobile and telephone excise taxes that had dropped Jan. 1 and a speedup in corporate tax collections.

Graduated withholding, like the corporate tax speedup, does not increase the amount of tax paid. It is designed to put collections more nearly on a pay as you go basis, so that fewer make-up payments would be required at the end of the year.

However, the schedule prepared by the Treasury and written into the bill has come under fire on the ground it calls for too much withholding from higher-income taxpayers, with the result that many of these would have to apply for refunds and would have money tied up without earning interest.

Republican members of the committee first raised this objection. A check today indicated substantial sentiment on the Democratic side also for adjustment of the withholding schedule.

The Treasury's own explanation of the bill concedes that the number of taxpayers in the $10,000-a-year and above income brackets who have too much tax withheld would be increased by the terms of the measure. Some critics say the effect would reach as far down as the $5,000 bracket.

The Treasury estimates that, of the 9 million taxpayers who file returns under the present system on incomes of $10,000 a year or more:

— 2.9 million have too much withheld from their paychecks. This number would increase to 5 million under the new system.

— 5.7 million now do not have enough withheld. This number would decrease to 3.4 million.

— 400,000 approximately break even. This group would increase to 600,000.

On the other hand, the Treasury says the changes it backs would greatly reduce the overwithholding of tax from lower-bracket taxpayers, relieving 12.6 million in the under $5,000 bracket and 2.6 million in the $5,000-$10,000 bracket.

Fire Loss Increases For East Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — The city's fire loss showed a 50 per cent increase, totaling $30,600 last year, Chief Frank Frederick reported today.

The 1964 loss was $20,000.

The largest single loss was a $12,000 fire in the cushion department of the Kenmar Furniture Co. last March, Frederick said.

Firemen answered 44 alarms last year and 74 first aid calls.

Middle, Upper Bracket Paychecks Due 'Break'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's proposal for graduated withholding of personal income taxes probably will be modified to reduce the bite on middle-and upper-bracket paychecks before the legislation goes to the House floor.

This was the outlook today as the House Ways and Means Committee resumed hearings on Johnson's $4.8-billion tax package, of which graduated withholding is a part. Major components of it are a reimposition, for two years, of automobile and telephone excise taxes that had dropped Jan. 1 and a speedup in corporate tax collections.

Graduated withholding, like the corporate tax speedup, does not increase the amount of tax paid. It is designed to put collections more nearly on a pay as you go basis, so that fewer make-up payments would be required at the end of the year.

However, the schedule prepared by the Treasury and written into the bill has come under fire on the ground it calls for too much withholding from higher-income taxpayers, with the result that many of these would have to apply for refunds and would have money tied up without earning interest.

Republican members of the committee first raised this objection. A check today indicated substantial sentiment on the Democratic side also for adjustment of the withholding schedule.

The Treasury's own explanation of the bill concedes that the number of taxpayers in the $10,000-a-year and above income brackets who have too much tax withheld would be increased by the terms of the measure. Some critics say the effect would reach as far down as the $5,000 bracket.

The Treasury estimates that, of the 9 million taxpayers who file returns under the present system on incomes of $10,000 a year or more:

— 2.9 million have too much withheld from their paychecks. This number would increase to 5 million under the new system.

— 5.7 million now do not have enough withheld. This number would decrease to 3.4 million.

— 400,000 approximately break even. This group would increase to 600,000.

On the other hand, the Treasury says the changes it backs would greatly reduce the overwithholding of tax from lower-bracket taxpayers, relieving 12.6 million in the under $5,000 bracket and 2.6 million in the $5,000-$10,000 bracket.

Crews Clear More Streets

Snow removal work moved into the First Ward again early today, concentrating on Pennsylvania Ave.'s entire length from Virginia Ave. to Elizabeth St., Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey said.

Two crews started work about 3 this morning. One began on Virginia Ave., moving eastward, and the other started at Dewey Ave., also moving to the east.

Snow was cleared from the areas near curbs to remove the deterrent to parking. The traffic lanes had been cleared earlier.

As part of the earlier cleanup work, Pennsylvania Ave. was cleared from Mulberry St. east to Virginia Ave.

Vodrey said the Pennsylvania Ave. job was "pretty well finished" when he made an inspection this morning.

The street department's hopper truck was used Wednesday to scatter salt where layers of ice remained on streets after the initial cleanup. The temperature rose enough to help the salt melt the snow on main thoroughfares, which were particularly slippery at intersections where autos were required to halt for traffic signals.

a Leatherneck squad waiting in ambush 5 miles northwest of Chu Lai, another Marine coastal base 50 miles south of Da Nang, and inflicted heavy casualties, a spokesman said.

Two Marines manning a checkpoint failed to return Wednesday night. A patrol sent after them found they had been killed by the Viet Cong. Several other Marines were wounded by Communist small-arms fire and mines in other patrols near Da Nang and Chu Lai.

The U.S. 1st Infantry Division closed out an operation called Quick Kick 30 miles north of Saigon. It reported one Viet Cong killed and four captured but said its big achievement was the discovery of a primitive mine factory and arms dump. The haul included seven Claymore-type mines which scatter shrapnel, quantities of casing, a 500-pound bomb, gunpowder and other explosives used for terrorist devices.

U.S. air attacks concentrated on the Meking Delta. Air Force pilots said their bombs set off three large explosions that shot flames and black smoke hundreds of feet into the air 85 miles southwest of Can Tho, indicating a hit on a fuel storage dump.

The lunar New Year holiday continued to figure in pronouncements from both camps.

The South Vietnamese government's official press agency reported that an armed Viet Cong platoon of 14 men, 18 to 30 years old, defected to the government at Phuoc Binh, 75 miles northwest of Saigon, last Thursday.

Hanoi Radio announced that the Viet Cong had released 15 South Vietnamese officers captured last year.

Hope Mounts On Pollution

new incinerator plant was nearing the end of his investigation of the foundation of the site near the sewage treatment plant. "Construction of the incinerator is scheduled to start within the next three weeks, and the plant will be completed this year, I'm sure," Vinovich said.

"This will end the problem of the dump," he informed Henry.

"That's good," Henry replied "But something must be done now to alleviate the situation."

Henry suggested that stricter restrictions should be placed on those who use the cump and suggested stronger enforcement of the separation of garbage and trash be enacted. "If the problem can't be solved here, then the Health Department must use its own measures," he cautioned.

VINOVICH promised that the Council would call on area residents to stop mixing garbage and trash.

"Midland collectors have orders not to take away any refuse that is mixed. We will keep a close check on the dump and see that the mixture is lessened. If the people fail to cooperate, then we will use stronger methods," he said.

Henry informed Vinovich that he would keep a check on the situation and if the problem isn't being controlled, he would contact Council and attend a future meeting for further discussion.

In other action, the Borough Street Department was congratulated for its job of cleaning up the snow.

"All of the workers did an outstanding job of digging Midland out of the 16-inch layer of snow, and the people should be grateful for a job well done," Presutti said.

Shovlin pointed out that motorists have made it difficult for the children to enjoy the sled riding facilities provided on 8th St. hill. "Cars are parked on both sides of the street and others continue to drive on it, endangering the lives of the sledders. Barrels have been placed at each corner of the side streets, but no sign has been painted on them warning motorists not to turn onto 8th St."

Council acted to remedy the situation.

Presutti reported that more than 250 ice skaters have taken advantage of the borough ponds almost nightly when the proper weather prevails. "Council should be proud that the recreation facilities are enjoyed by so many people," he said.

Joseph Hibbard agreed with Presutti, but said "The snow storm has left some of the ponds impossible for use at present. As soon as the general snow cleaning operations are finished, these areas should be cleared for the skaters."

Hibbard's suggestion was approved by Council.

Michael Baker Jr., Inc., borough engineer, reported that the Pennsylvania Telephone Co. has completed installing the drain system on 7th St. and surface repair will be completed as soon as conditions permit.

Economy

try, repeatedly and in various ways, that it is vitally important for them to follow guideposts set out by the three-man Council of Economic Advisers headed by Gardner Ackley.

Designed to keep wage and price increases within non-inflationary limits, the guidelines are pegged to increase productivity. The council — and it gets some arguments on this — figures that increase at 3.2 per cent a year.

It specifically recommends sticking to that percentage and holding all boosts within that boundary.

"Perhaps our most serious economic challenge in 1966," the President told Congress, "will be to preserve the essential stability of costs and prices which has contributed significantly to our balanced progress."

New requirements of the war in Viet Nam make it more difficult to keep prices stable, the President said. Again he warned of possible tax increases rather than more reductions.

"We know that we do not need to put our growing economy into a straightjacket, or to throw it into a reverse. But the extent of the fiscal or monetary restraint that will be needed to avoid inflationary pressures will depend directly on the restraint and moderation exercised by those who have power over wages and prices."

On the general economic outlook, Congress got word that the gross national product — the value of all the goods and services the country produces, should go up $46.5 billion this year That would be just a shade short of the record $47 billion last year and would push the total to around $722 billion.

Again this year, spending on defense and on fixed investments of business — plants and equipment — is expected to be the main source of power for a continued economic surge.

Johnson foresees rising consumer incomes this year going largely into "expenditures for better living." With the national output at $722 billion, he foresees an extra $40 billion for spending and production for civilian needs in 1966.

He also foresees unemployment shrinking below 4 per cent, to the lowest rate since 1953. He predicts great advances in the productive capacity of industries and full use of it, without overuse to mark up good gains in output.

Crash Hurts 7 From Area

Seven persons suffered minor injuries in a three - car pileup on Township Rd. 902, two-tenths a mile south of Route 558, Wednesday at 10 p. m., according to the Lisbon State Highway Patrol.

Officers said a car operated by Lyle E. Stacy, 18, of Columbiana became stuck in a snow bank. His car was hit in the rear by another driven by Chester L. Urbschat, 41, of Columbiana, whose car in turn was struck by one driven by Paul L. Neville, 31, of Lisbon R. D. 5.

Minor injuries were received by Urbschat, his wife, Mrs. Winifred Urbschat, 38, Joseph Driscoll, 40, of Columbiana R. D. 2, his wife, Mrs. Theresa Driscoll, 40, and their children, Joseph Jr., 9, and Sue, 12, all passengers in the Urbschat car.

Sheryl Neville, 20-month-old daughter of the third driver, also was injured.

Officers said a stone flew from the rear wheels of a truck driven by John D. Schneider, 47, of Pittsburgh and broke the window of a car operated by Kay Dawn Brown, 32, of Minerva on Route 39, just east of East Liverpool, Wednesday at 5:15 p. m.

There are 139 hospitals and 2,649 licensed physicians in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Driver Posts Bond In Car Crash Deaths

LISBON — A Wellsville trucker, indicted by the January Grand Jury on a charge of manslaughter in the second degree, today appeared before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard and posted $1,000 bond.

Andrew Eugene Turick, 27, was to have appeared at arraignment Monday, but failed to do so because the vehicle he was operating broke down in Joplin, Mo., en route to Texas.

No date for Turick's arraignment has been set. He is charged with two counts of manslaughter resulting from a two-car head-on collision Oct. 3 in which a Salineville man, Edwin Eugene Bettis, 24, and his wife Janice, 21, died.

After indictment, Turick had been released under a new law which allows courts, at their discretion, to permit persons charged with a felony to be freed on their own recognizance. However, because of Turick's non-appearance Monday, Judge Buzzard revoked the defendant's recognizance and placed him under a $1,000 bond.

The U.S. trucking industry's revenues for 1965 reached an estimated $10 billion, compared with $9.2 billion the previous year.

Snow was cleared from the areas near curbs to remove the deterrent to parking. The traffic lanes had been cleared earlier.

As part of the earlier cleanup work, Pennsylvania Ave. was cleared from Mulberry St. east to Virginia Ave.

Vodrey said the Pennsylvania Ave. job was "pretty well finished" when he made an inspection this morning.

The street department's hopper truck was used Wednesday to scatter salt where layers of ice remained on streets after the initial cleanup. The temperature rose enough to help the salt melt the snow on main thoroughfares, which were particularly slippery at intersections where autos were required to halt for traffic signals.

a Leatherneck squad waiting in ambush 5 miles northwest of Chu Lai, another Marine coastal base 50 miles south of Da Nang, and inflicted heavy casualties, a spokesman said.

Two Marines manning a checkpoint failed to return Wednesday night. A patrol sent after them found they had been killed by the Viet Cong. Several other Marines were wounded by Communist small-arms fire and mines in other patrols near Da Nang and Chu Lai.

The U.S. 1st Infantry Division closed out an operation called Quick Kick 30 miles north of Saigon. It reported one Viet Cong killed and four captured but said its big achievement was the discovery of a primitive mine factory and arms dump. The haul included seven Claymore-type mines which scatter shrapnel, quantities of casing, a 500-pound bomb, gunpowder and other explosives used for terrorist devices.

U.S. air attacks concentrated on the Meking Delta. Air Force pilots said their bombs set off three large explosions that shot flames and black smoke hundreds of feet into the air 85 miles southwest of Can Tho, indicating a hit on a fuel storage dump.

The lunar New Year holiday continued to figure in pronouncements from both camps.

The South Vietnamese government's official press agency reported that an armed Viet Cong platoon of 14 men, 18 to 30 years old, defected to the government at Phuoc Binh, 75 miles northwest of Saigon, last Thursday.

Hanoi Radio announced that the Viet Cong had released 15 South Vietnamese officers captured last year.

Hope Mounts On Pollution

new incinerator plant was nearing the end of his investigation of the foundation of the site near the sewage treatment plant. "Construction of the incinerator is scheduled to start within the next three weeks, and the plant will be completed this year, I'm sure," Vinovich said.

"This will end the problem of the dump," he informed Henry.

"That's good," Henry replied "But something must be done now to alleviate the situation."

Henry suggested that stricter restrictions should be placed on those who use the dump and suggested stronger enforcement of the separation of garbage and trash be enacted. "If the problem can't be solved here, then the Health Department must use its own measures," he cautioned.

VINOVICH promised that the Council would call on area residents to stop mixing garbage and trash.

"Midland collectors have orders not to take away any refuse that is mixed. We will keep a close check on the dump and see that the mixture is lessened. If the people fail to cooperate, then we will use stronger methods," he said.

Henry informed Vinovich that he would keep a check on the situation and if the problem isn't being controlled, he would contact Council and attend a future meeting for further discussion.

In other action, the Borough Street Department was congratulated for its job of cleaning up the snow.

"All of the workers did an outstanding job of digging Midland out of the 16-inch layer of snow, and the people should be grateful for a job well done," Presutti said.

Shovlin pointed out that motorists have made it difficult for the children to enjoy the sled riding facilities provided on 8th St. hill. "Cars are parked on both sides of the street and others continue to drive on it, endangering the lives of the sledders. Barrels have been placed at each corner of the side streets, but no sign has been painted on them warning motorists not to turn onto 8th St."

Council acted to remedy the situation.

Presutti reported that more than 250 ice skaters have taken advantage of the borough ponds almost nightly when the proper weather prevails. "Council should be proud that the recreation facilities are enjoyed by so many people," he said.

Joseph Hibbard agreed with Presutti, but said "The snow storm has left some of the ponds impossible for use at present. As soon as the general snow cleaning operations are finished, these areas should be cleared for the skaters."

Hibbard's suggestion was approved by Council.

Michael Baker Jr., Inc., borough engineer, reported that the Pennsylvania Telephone Co. has completed installing the drain system on 7th St. and surface repair will be completed as soon as conditions permit.

Economy

try, repeatedly and in various ways, that it is vitally important for them to follow guideposts set out by the three-man Council of Economic Advisers headed by Gardner Ackley.

Designed to keep wage and price increases within non-inflationary limits, the guidelines are pegged to increase productivity. The council — and it gets some arguments on this — figures that increase at 3.2 per cent a year.

It specifically recommends sticking to that percentage and holding all boosts within that boundary.

"Perhaps our most serious economic challenge in 1966," the President told Congress, "will be to preserve the essential stability of costs and prices which has contributed significantly to our balanced progress."

New requirements of the war in Viet Nam make it more difficult to keep prices stable, the President said. Again he warned of possible tax increases rather than more reductions.

"We know that we do not need to put our growing economy into a straightjacket, or to throw it into a reverse. But the extent of the fiscal or monetary restraint that will be needed to avoid inflationary pressures will depend directly on the restraint and moderation exercised by those who have power over wages and prices."

On the general economic outlook, Congress got word that the gross national product — the value of all the goods and services the country produces, should go up $46.5 billion this year. That would be just a shade short of the record $47 billion last year and would push the total to around $722 billion.

Again this year, spending on defense and on fixed investments of business — plants and equipment — is expected to be the main source of power for a continued economic surge.

Johnson foresees rising consumer incomes this year going largely into "expenditures for better living." With the national output at $722 billion, he foresees an extra $40 billion for spending and production for civilian needs in 1966.

He also foresees unemployment shrinking below 4 per cent, to the lowest rate since 1953. He predicts great advances in the productive capacity of industries and full use of it, without overuse to mark up good gains in output.

Crash Hurts 7 From Area

Seven persons suffered minor injuries in a three - car pileup on Township Rd. 902, two-tenths a mile south of Route 558, Wednesday at 10 p. m., according to the Lisbon State Highway Patrol.

Officers said a car operated by Lyle E. Stacy, 18, of Columbiana became stuck in a snow bank. His car was hit in the rear by another driven by Chester L. Urbschat, 41, of Columbiana, whose car in turn was struck by one driven by Paul L. Neville, 31, of Lisbon R. D. 5.

Minor injuries were received by Urbschat, his wife, Mrs. Winifred Urbschat, 38, Joseph Driscoll, 40, of Columbiana R. D. 2, his wife, Mrs. Theresa Driscoll, 40, and their children, Joseph Jr., 9, and Sue, 12, all passengers in the Urbschat car.

Sheryl Neville, 20-month-old daughter of the third driver, also was injured.

Officers said a stone flew from the rear wheels of a truck driven by John D. Schneider, 47, of Pittsburgh and broke the window of a car operated by Kay Dawn Brown, 32, of Minerva on Route 39, just east of East Liverpool, Wednesday at 5:15 p. m.

Driver Posts Bond In Car Crash Deaths

LISBON — A Wellsville trucker, indicted by the January Grand Jury on a charge of manslaughter in the second degree, today appeared before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard and posted $1,000 bond.

Andrew Eugene Turick, 27, was to have appeared at arraignment Monday, but failed to do so because the vehicle he was operating broke down in Joplin, Mo., en route to Texas.

No date for Turick's arraignment has been set. He is charged with two counts of manslaughter resulting from a two-car head-on collision Oct. 3 in which a Salineville man, Edwin Eugene Bettis, 24, and his wife Janice, 21, died.

After indictment, Turick had been released under a new law which allows courts, at their discretion, to permit persons charged with a felony to be freed on their own recognizance. However, because of Turick's non-appearance Monday, Judge Buzzard revoked the defendant's recognizance and placed him under a $1,000 bond.

The U.S. trucking industry's revenues for 1965 reached an estimated $10 billion, compared with $9.2 billion the previous year.

Local Girl Weds Airman In Ceremonies At Church

A winter theme of red and white provided the background for the wedding of Miss Virginia Rae Anderson and Airman 1C Roger B. Jarvis on Jan. 15 at 7 o'clock in the Oakland Free Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anderson of Shadyside Ave. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Maxie Jarvis of Gallipolis.

The Rev. S. H. Estel officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar background of white gladioli and mums, tied with red satin bows, palms and candelabra. Satin bows marked the family pews.

STUDENTS OF Roberts Wesleyan College of New York presented the music, with Miss Neva Hessler offering a half-hour recital of organ selections and Miss Marcia Chapman singing "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "At This Altar."

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a full-length gown of white silk cloud satin. The fitted bodice, of Chantilly lace, was designed with a scalloped neckline and long, pointed sleeves. A wide band of lace edged the hemline of the skirt and chapel train.

Her matching headpiece held an elbow-length veil of silk illusion. She carried an arrangement of red sweetheart roses and white roses, interspersed with English ivy, placed on a white Bible. The familiar traditions were observed.

Miss Evajane Canon was maid of honor and Miss Joan Anderson, sister of the bride, bridesmaid. They appeared in red velvet, floor-length gowns fashioned with cummerbunds of red peau de soie. Long streamers offered back accent.

Their headpieces were red velvet circlets holding theater veils. They wore long, white gloves and carried Colonial bouquets of red and white speckled carnations.

C. Clyde Jarvis served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Airman Leroy Jarvis, another brother, and Marvin Anderson of Cuyahoga Falls, brother of the bride.

THE MOTHER of the bride chose a pink crepe dress and the bridegroom's mother a green knit suit. White rose corsages complemented their attire.

A reception for 200 followed in the Light and Life Room of the church, where decorations consisted of white wedding bells, red roses and white maline hearts. The buffet table was centered with a four-tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple and encircled with red carnations.

Symbolizing the union, the couple lighted the large center candle of the three-branch candelabra, snuffing the two exterior candles representing their individual lives.

Aides were Mrs. Virginia Torrence, aunt of the bride, who supervised the reception, Miss Nancy Anderson, Miss Miriam Torrence, Miss Anna Heldreth, Miss Donna Henderson, Miss Erma Curtis, Miss Doris Curtis and Miss Doris Young.

Guests were registered from Rochester and North Chili, N. Y.; St. Albans, Vt.; Weirton, Steubenville, Akron, Beaver, New Brighton and Chester.

For her honeymoon trip, the bride wore a cranberry color ensemble in mohair, with black accessories and white rose corsage.

The bride, a 1963 graduate of East Liverpool High School, was employed as secretary in the nursing division of Robert Wesleyan College at North Chili.

Her husband was graduated in 1962 from Bethlem - Center High School at Fredericktown, Pa., and is stationed at St. Albans Air Force Base in Vermont. He will be discharged in eight months.

MILLBROOK, N. Y. (AP) — Police protection was the issue before the Central School District Board of Education and Mrs. Kenneth M. Local Girl Weds Airman In Ceremonies At Church

A winter theme of red and white provided the background for the wedding of Miss Virginia Rae Anderson and Airman 1C Roger B. Jarvis on Jan. 15 at 7 o'clock in the Oakland Free Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anderson of Shadyside Ave. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Maxie Jarvis of Gallipolis.

The Rev. S. H. Estel officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar background of white gladioli and mums, tied with red satin bows, palms and candelabra. Satin bows marked the family pews.

STUDENTS OF Roberts Wesleyan College of New York presented the music, with Miss Neva Hessler offering a half-hour recital of organ selections and Miss Marcia Chapman singing "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "At This Altar."

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a full-length gown of white silk cloud satin. The fitted bodice, of Chantilly lace, was designed with a scalloped neckline and long, pointed sleeves. A wide band of lace edged the hemline of the skirt and chapel train.

Her matching headpiece held an elbow-length veil of silk illusion. She carried an arrangement of red sweetheart roses and white roses, interspersed with English ivy, placed on a white Bible. The familiar traditions were observed.

Miss Evajane Canon was maid of honor and Miss Joan Anderson, sister of the bride, bridesmaid. They appeared in red velvet, floor-length gowns fashioned with cummerbunds of red peau de soie. Long streamers offered back accent.

Their headpieces were red velvet circlets holding theater veils. They wore long, white gloves and carried Colonial bouquets of red and white speckled carnations.

C. Clyde Jarvis served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Airman Leroy Jarvis, another brother, and Marvin Anderson of Cuyahoga Falls, brother of the bride.

THE MOTHER of the bride chose a pink crepe dress and the bridegroom's mother a green knit suit. White rose corsages complemented their attire.

A reception for 200 followed in the Light and Life Room of the church, where decorations consisted of white wedding bells, red roses and white maline hearts. The buffet table was centered with a four-tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple and encircled with red carnations.

Symbolizing the union, the couple lighted the large center candle of the three-branch candelabra, snuffing the two exterior candles representing their individual lives.

Aides were Mrs. Virginia Torrence, aunt of the bride, who supervised the reception. Miss Nancy Anderson, Miss Miriam Torrence, Miss Anna Heldreth, Miss Donna Henderson, Miss Erma Curtis, Miss Doris Curtis and Miss Doris Young.

Guests were registered from Rochester and North Chili, N. Y.; St. Albans, Vt.; Weirton, Steubenville, Akron, Beaver, New Brighton and Chester.

For her honeymoon trip, the bride wore a cranberry color ensemble in mohair, with black accessories and white rose corsage.

The bride, a 1963 graduate of East Liverpool High School, was employed as secretary in the nursing division of Robert Wesleyan College at North Chili.

Her husband was graduated in 1962 from Bethlem - Center High School at Fredericktown, Pa., and is stationed at St. Albans Air Force Base in Vermont. He will be discharged in eight months.

The newlyweds are residing at St. Albans.

The Boston News Letter, established in 1704 by John Campbell, was the first regularly published newspaper in America.

Out Of The Air

By RICHARD DOAN

Maybe Slipping, But Still On Top

Topic A in New York TV circles these days, beyond any doubt, is how "Batman" is doing. The answer to this question depended at times upon whom you asked.

Richard Doan

ABC said the hottest entry in its "second season" was doing all right, thank you. The competition said the new twice - weekly comic strip in the flesh already had begun to slip.

-:-

TO SOME EXTENT both versions were right.

Beginning his second week of derring-do, "Batman," ABC proclaimed, "was again far and away the most popular show in the 7:30-8 p.m. time period."

There was no doubt about it: a special 50-city Trendex survey ordered up by ABC showed "Batman" with a 25.5 rating and 46.2 share of audience for Wednesday night. National Arbitron gave the show a 21.9 and 35 share.

On the other hand, it was true that the audience counts were smaller than for last week's openers. The premiere got a 27.3 Trendex with 49.9 share, and a 24.9 Arbitron with 39 share.

IN SOME rival quarters, the dip was interpreted as a bad omen for "Batman," meaning the show probably wasn't going to succeed.

ABC officials chose, publicly at least, to see the lower figures as an expected dropping away of some viewers who sampled the first show. It hardly could be expected to hold everybody, these networkers suggested.

"'Batman' does it again!" an ABCer exulted.

"The show's on the skids already," a rival insisted.

Another new ABC entry, Robert Goulet's "Blue Light," held up well, according to Trendex, running neck and neck (19.3 to 19.8) with CBS' "Beverly Hillbillies" and outpulling NBC's "Virginian" (16.7).

-:-

NBC HAD something to trumpet, too.

Bob Hope's 90-minute Viet Nam Christmas special claimed the highest rating of any show this season: a 35.2 National Arbitron and 56 share of the audience. The New York Nielsen figures were even higher: 40.2 and a 60 per cent share.

The audience lead-in provided by the Hope blockbuster undoubtedly helped folksinger Roger Miller's showing in a 30-minute NBC special which followed. His Arbitron was a 24.3 with a 45 share.

NATIONAL Educational Television is beginning a 30-minute monthly series of programs of editorial comment, offering opinion running the political gamut from Communist left to conservative right.

Commentators on the premere of "In My Opinion" will include Barry Goldwater, 1964 Republican presidential standard bearer, and Zeigmunt Broniarek, Washington correspondent for Warsaw's Ludu, a Communist newspaper.

Others delivering four-minute editorials on the first edition of the series will be Rowland Evans, co-author of the New York Herald Tribune's syndicated "Inside Report" column; Jules Feiffer, well-known cartoonist; Max Freedman, syndicated Chicago Daily News columnist, and Richard Wilson, Washington bureau chief and political columnist for the Cowles publications.

The aim of the series, said NET producer Harry McCarthy, simply "is to put editorial opinions on the air . . . to do what newspapers have been doing for several hundred years."

The program will be distributed to 104 noncommercial stations across the country.

TUESDAY NIGHTS at 10 on CBS, the last surviving network hour regularly devoted to public affairs, has ceased to be the perennially lowest - rated time period of the week.

A notable example was the Frank Sinatra documentary, a program designed, to be sure, to attract more popular attention than one on water conservation. Its 18.1 Nielsen ranked it 56th among about 127 network offerings.

South Vietnam's tropical climate varies from hot and dry to hot and rainy.

Truck Figure In 2 Mishaps Within Interval Of 4 Minutes

A Newell man's pickup truck figured in two collisions in a span of four minutes this morning in downtown East Liverpool as a new light snowfall added hazards to driving.

A 1962 model pickup truck operated by Edward Hupp, 51, of 601 Harrison St., Newell, skidded into a tractor- trailer at E. 3rd and Washington Sts. at 8:53 a. m. and four minutes later Hupp's halted vehicle was struck by a skidding auto, police reported.

In the first collision, Hupp was unable to halt his pickup truck as he approached the intersection of E. 3rd on the steep grade of Washington St., officers said.

The truck hit the rear wheel of a tractor-trailer on E. 3rd St. operated by John Watkins, 52, of 901 May St. and owned by Commercial Motor Freight, Inc., of Columbus, officers said.

The big rig was undamaged. There was damage to the left front of Hupp's truck.

Unaware of the crash at the foot of the grade, Donald Ross Scott, 57, of 1210 Northside Ave. Ave. started down Washington St. toward E. 3rd St. in his 1955 model car.

The auto skidded out of control and hit the Newell man's pickup truck, officers said. Scott told Patrolman Paul A. Burson Jr. his sedan "skidded all the way from the YMCA" at the junction of E. 4th and Washington Sts.

Police said the thin new coating of snow which fell this morning created hazards when it covered ice reamining from the weekend storm.

A collision at Pennsylvania and Central Aves. at 8:30 this morning involved a 1960 two-door sedan driven by Charles D. Bell, 35, of 1221 Pennsylvania Ave. and a 1959 two-door sedan operated by Lawrence Downard, 52, of 220 Carolina Ave., Maplewood, officers said.

Bell said he pulled from a parking place at the curb and his auto was hit by Downard's. Downard reported he was halted behind a school bus. When traffic began to move again, Bell pulled from the curb into the path of his car, he said. Patrolman William A. Devon investigated.

Out Of The Air

By RICHARD DOAN

Maybe Slipping, But Still On Top

Topic A in New York TV circles these days, beyond any doubt, is how "Batman" is doing. The answer to this question depended at times upon whom you asked.

Richard Doan

ABC said the hottest entry in its "second season" was doing all right, thank you. The competition said the new twice-weekly comic strip in the flesh already had begun to slip.

-:-

TO SOME EXTENT both versions were right.

Beginning his second week of derring-do, "Batman," ABC proclaimed, "was again far and away the most popular show in the 7:30-8 p.m. time period."

There was no doubt about it: a special 50-city Trendex survey ordered up by ABC showed "Batman" with a 25.5 rating and 46.2 share of audience for Wednesday night. National Arbitron gave the show a 21.9 and 35 share.

On the other hand, it was true that the audience counts were smaller than for last week's openers. The premiere got a 27.3 Trendex with 49.9 share, and a 24.9 Arbitron with 39 share.

IN SOME rival quarters, the dip was interpreted as a bad omen for "Batman," meaning the show probably wasn't going to succeed.

ABC officials chose, publicly at least, to see the lower figures as an expected dropping away of some viewers who sampled the first show. It hardly could be expected to hold everybody, these networkers suggested.

"'Batman' does it again!" an ABCer exulted.

"The show's on the skids already," a rival insisted.

Another new ABC entry, Robert Goulet's "Blue Light," held up well, according to Trendex, running neck and neck (19.3 to 19.8) with CBS' "Beverly Hillbillies" and outpulling NBC's "Virginian" (16.7).

NBC HAD something to trumpet, too.

Bob Hope's 90-minute Viet Nam Christmas special claimed the highest rating of any show this season: a 35.2 National Arbitron and 56 share of the audience. The New York Nielsen figures were even higher: 40.2 and a 60 per cent share.

The audience lead-in provided by the Hope blockbuster undoubtedly helped folksinger Roger Miller's showing in a 30-minute NBC special which followed. His Arbitron was a 24.3 with a 45 share.

NATIONAL Educational Television is beginning a 30-minute monthly series of programs of editorial comment, offering opinion running the political gamut from Communist left to conservative right.

Commentators on the premere of "In My Opinion" will include Barry Goldwater, 1964 Republican presidential standard bearer, and Zeigmunt Bronjarek, Washington correspondent for Warsaw's Ludu, a Communist newspaper.

Others delivering four-minute editorials on the first edition of the series will be Rowland Evans, co-author of the New York Herald Tribune's syndicated "Inside Report" column; Jules Feiffer, well-known cartoonist; Max Freedman, syndicated Chicago Daily News columnist, and Richard Wilson, Washington bureau chief and political columnist for the Cowles publications.

The aim of the series, said NET producer Harry McCarthy, simply "is to put editorial opinions on the air . . . to do what newspapers have been doing for several hundred years."

The program will be distributed to 104 noncommercial stations across the country.

TUESDAY NIGHTS at 10 on CBS, the last surviving network hour regularly devoted to public affairs, has ceased to be the perennially lowest-rated time period of the week.

A notable example was the Frank Sinatra documentary, a program designed, to be sure, to attract more popular attention than one on water conservation. Its 18.1 Nielsen ranked it 56th among about 127 network offerings.

South Vietnam's tropical climate varies from hot and dry to hot and rainy.

Truck Figure In 2 Mishaps Within Interval Of 4 Minutes

A Newell man's pickup truck figured in two collisions in a span of four minutes this morning in downtown East Liverpool as a new light snowfall added hazards to driving.

A 1962 model pickup truck operated by Edward Hupp, 51, of 601 Harrison St., Newell, skidded into a tractor-trailer at E. 3rd and Washington Sts. at 8:53 a. m. and four minutes later Hupp's halted vehicle was struck by a skidding auto, police reported.

In the first collision, Hupp was unable to halt his pickup truck as he approached the intersection of E. 3rd on the steep grade of Washington St., officers said.

The truck hit the rear wheel of a tractor-trailer on E. 3rd St. operated by John Watkins, 52, of 901 May St. and owned by Commercial Motor Freight, Inc., of Columbus, officers said.

The big rig was undamaged. There was damage to the left front of Hupp's truck.

Unaware of the crash at the foot of the grade, Donald Ross Scott, 57, of 1210 Northside Ave. Ave. started down Washington St. toward E. 3rd St. in his 1955 model car.

The auto skidded out of control and hit the Newell man's pickup truck, officers said. Scott told Patrolman Paul A. Burson Jr. his sedan "skidded all the way from the YMCA" at the junction of E. 4th and Washington Sts.

Police said the thin new coating of snow which fell this morning created hazards when it covered ice reamining from the weekend storm.

A collision at Pennsylvania and Central Aves. at 8:30 this morning involved a 1960 two-door sedan driven by Charles D. Bell, 35, of 1221 Pennsylvania Ave. and a 1959 two-door sedan operated by Lawrence Downard, 52, of 220 Carolina Ave., Maplewood, officers said.

Bell said he pulled from a parking place at the curb and his auto was hit by Downard's. Downard reported he was halted behind a school bus. When traffic began to move again, Bell pulled from the curb into the path of his car, he said. Patrolman William A. Devon investigated.

In Filing Tax Return

Who You Can Claim As Dependent

It's not only children who may be claimed as dependents in making out your federal tax — but specific rules apply as to how much money relatives can make and still be listed. This article, the fourth of five, explains the requirements.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Each dependent you can claim on your 1965 income tax return means a $600 exemption off your income. A dependent could be your child, parent, some other relative, or a friend.

A wife is not a dependent. Husband-wife exemptions, explained earlier in this series, vary by age. But exemptions for a dependent, under or over 65, is a flat $600. There is no extra exemption for blindness.

ONE TEST of whether you can claim a person as a dependent is this: Did you contribute more than half his support in 1965? Hereafter, to save space, it will be referred to as the test.

You can claim your child as a dependent if he was born or died in 1965, but not a stillborn child, if you met the test in that part of the year in which the child lived.

You can claim your child, stepchild or adopted child, under or over 19, if he had less than $600 income and you met the test.

If your under-19 child had $600 or more income, he'd have to file a return and take his own $600 exemption there, as does everyone with that much income, but if you met the test you could claim him as an exemption on your return without including his income.

But if your child 19 or over had $600 or more income you could not claim him as a dependent, even though you had met the test, unless he was a full-time student.

If he was a full-time student, he'd file his own return on his $600 or more income, taking his own exemption, but if you met the support test you could claim him as a dependent without listing his income.

YOUR CHILD would not be considered a full-time student if he had a regular full-time job and went to night school, or took correspondence courses. If your child won a scholarship, that wouldn't count in deciding whether you had met the support test.

But, in the case of a married child who filed a joint return with his or her spouse, you couldn't claim an exemption even though you had met the support test for that child.

You can't claim a paid servant in your home as a dependent. But you could claim a friend or foster parent if he lived in your home a full year, got more than half his support from you, and did not have as much as $600 income of his own.

You can also claim the following relatives as dependents if you met the support test and they did not have $600 or more taxable income:

Your grandchild, great-grandchild, and so on; brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister; parent, grandparent, great-grandparent or other direct ancestor; stepmother or step-father; aunt or uncle, meaning a brother or sister of your mother or father; niece or nephew, meaning a son or daughter of your brother or sister; father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law.

NEITHER death nor divorce ends any of the above relationships. Example: if you meet the support test you can continue to claim your father-in-law as a dependent even though your wife is dead or divorced.

Suppose one of the relatives listed above had, say, $700 in nontaxable income, like Social Security payments. Could you claim him as a dependent? Yes, if you met the support test.

There'd be no question if that dependent banked the non-taxable income and didn't use it to live on. If he spent some or all of it to help support himself, you'd have to decide whether your help was more than half his support.

Remember: If such a relative had taxable income of $600 or more, he'd have to file his own return and you couldn't claim him as a dependent, even though you had met the support test.

If a dependent died in 1965 but you paid more than half his support during the part of the year in which he lived, you could claim him as a dependent and take a $600 exemption for him, provided he did not have $600 or more taxable income of his own.

143 Attend Dinner

Paisley Awarded Chamber Plaque

About 143 attended the annual Midland Chamber of Commerce dinner-dance Wednesday night at the Willows Motel in Industry.

Highlight of the evening was a report of the year's activities by Mrs. Eileen Paisley, retiring president, and a presentation to her of a special plaque "for distinguished and unselfish service" to the Chamber and community.

Presentation of the plaque was made by Paul McGeehan, executive secretary.

—:—

A. L. BREAKIRON, superintendent of community relations for the Crucible Steel Co.'s Midland Works, served as master of ceremonies for the event arranged by Charles Finley and Charles Schmitt.

Breakiron introduced Lester Smith, new Chamber president, who spoke briefly, along with other officers and guests.

In introducing Mrs. Paisley, former publisher of The Midland News, Breakiron said she was "controversial," but added that "everyone has given her credit for doing good."

Mrs. Paisley described the past year's projects of the Chamber, including a testimonial banquet for the championship basketball team, school picnic, efforts to obtain a physician for the area, winning a Fourth of July parade float prize, Chamber picnic and "fun frolic," Christmas lighting contest, street Christmas tree project and others.

She closed with an original poem about the current Crucible stock market struggle for management control.

Mayor Eli Corak urged the Chamber to a greater participation in the annual Fourth of July program.

He also discussed the cooperation of the borough administration in helping to finance part of the school board's library and recreation programs.

THE MAYOR reported on the borough's work on snow removal on streets since the weekend storm.

He referred to a recent petitioning of Council for increased efforts toward obtaining a physician for the borough, indicating such petitions were unnecessary, declaring anyone wishing action on any matter should appear at Council sessions and make the needs known.

Breakiron expressed appreciation on behalf of the Chamber for borough assistance in the holiday lighting project.

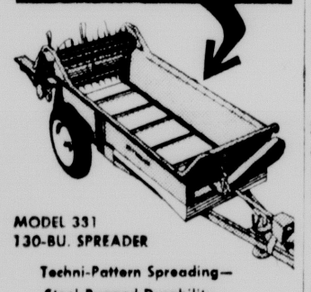

A vocal quartet, "The Men From Mars," presented a program of gospel songs. The dinner was followed by dancing to the music of Leo Curto's combo.

A wife is not a dependent. Husband-wife exemptions, explained earlier in this series, vary by age. But exemptions for a dependent, under or over 65, is a flat $600. There is no extra exemption for blindness.

ONE TEST of whether you can claim a person as a dependent is this: Did you contribute more than half his support in 1965? Hereafter, to save space, it will be referred to as the test.

You can claim your child as a dependent if he was born or died in 1965, but not a stillborn child, if you met the test in that part of the year in which the child lived.

You can claim your child, stepchild or adopted child, under or over 19, if he had less than $600 income and you met the test.

If your under-19 child had $600 or more income, he'd have to file a return and take his own $600 exemption there, as does everyone with that much income, but if you met the test you could claim him as an exemption on your return without including his income.

But if your child 19 or over had $600 or more income you could not claim him as a dependent, even though you had met the test, unless he was a full-time student.

If he was a full-time student, he'd file his own return on his $600 or more income, taking his own exemption, but if you met the support test you could claim him as a dependent without listing his income.

YOUR CHILD would not be considered a full-time student if he had a regular full-time job and went to night school, or took correspondence courses. If your child won a scholarship, that wouldn't count in deciding whether you had met the support test.

But, in the case of a married child who filed a joint return with his or her spouse, you couldn't claim an exemption even though you had met the support test for that child.

You can't claim a paid servant in your home as a dependent. But you could claim a friend or foster parent if he lived in your home a full year, got more than half his support from you, and did not have as much as $600 income of his own.

You can also claim the following relatives as dependents if you met the support test and they did not have $600 or more taxable income:

Your grandchild, great-grandchild, and so on; brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister; parent, grandparent, great-grandparent or other direct ancestor; stepmother or step-father; aunt or uncle, meaning a brother or sister of your mother or father; niece or nephew, meaning a son or daughter of your brother or sister; father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law.

NEITHER death nor divorce ends any of the above relationships. Example: if you meet the support test you can continue to claim your father-in-law as a dependent even though your wife is dead or divorced.

Suppose one of the relatives listed above had, say, $700 in nontaxable income, like Social Security payments. Could you claim him as a dependent? Yes, if you met the support test.

There'd be no question if that dependent banked the non-taxable income and didn't use it to live on. If he spent some or all of it to help support himself, you'd have to decide whether your help was more than half his support.

Remember: If such a relative had taxable income of $600 or more, he'd have to file his own return and you couldn't claim him as a dependent, even though you had met the support test.

If a dependent died in 1965 but you paid more than half his support during the part of the year in which he lived, you could claim him as a dependent and take a $600 exemption for him, provided he did not have $600 or more taxable income of his own.

143 Attend Dinner

Paisley Awarded Chamber Plaque

About 143 attended the annual Midland Chamber of Commerce dinner-dance Wednesday night at the Willows Motel in Industry.

Highlight of the evening was a report of the year's activities by Mrs. Eileen Paisley, retiring president, and a presentation to her of a special plaque "for distinguished and unselfish service" to the Chamber and community.

Presentation of the plaque was made by Paul McGeehan, executive secretary.

—:—

A. L. BREAKIRON, superintendent of community relations for the Crucible Steel Co.'s Midland Works, served as master of ceremonies for the event arranged by Charles Finley and Charles Schmitt.

Breakiron introduced Lester Smith, new Chamber president, who spoke briefly, along with other officers and guests.

In introducing Mrs. Paisley, former publisher of The Midland News, Breakiron said she was "controversial," but added that "everyone has given her credit for doing good."

Mrs. Paisley described the past year's projects of the Chamber, including a testimonial banquet for the championship basketball team, school picnic, efforts to obtain a physician for the area, winning a Fourth of July parade float prize, Chamber picnic and "fun frolic," Christmas lighting contest, street Christmas tree project and others.

She closed with an original poem about the current Crucible stock market struggle for management control.

Mayor Eli Corak urged the Chamber to a greater participation in the annual Fourth of July program.

He also discussed the cooperation of the borough administration in helping to finance part of the school board's library and recreation programs.

THE MAYOR reported on the borough's work on snow removal on streets since the weekend storm.

He referred to a recent petitioning of Council for increased efforts toward obtaining a physician for the borough, indicating such petitions were unnecessary, declaring anyone wishing action on any matter should appear at Council sessions and make the needs known.

Breakiron expressed appreciation on behalf of the Chamber for borough assistance in the holiday lighting project.

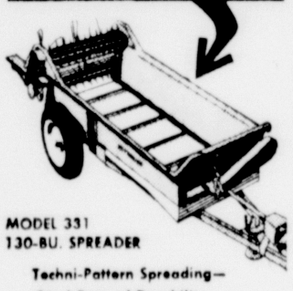

A vocal quartet, "The Men From Mars," presented a program of gospel songs. The dinner was followed by dancing to the music of Leo Curto's combo.

Bill On Water Basin Would Include Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Great Lakes Basin Compact of eight states including Ohio would have congressional consent under a bill introduced by Rep. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis. The compact was established in 1955 through interstate agreement.

Reuss' measure states the purpose of the compact is to promote orderly, integrated and comprehensive development use and conservation of the basin's water resources. The members have designated their joint research and advisory agency on Great Lakes water programs and problems.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: After reading the letter from the ex-convict who couldn't get a job because of his past I decided that he and I have a lot in common. I'm no ex-con but I can't get a job because I'm 1-A in the draft.

I have tried to find work for several months but everywhere I go I get the same thing. "Sorry, it costs a lot to train a man. You'd be called into the service just about the time we could make use of you. We can't take a chance."

I can take a chance in Viet Nam but business can't take a chance on me.

My parents spent a lot of money to put me through college and they are far from rich. Now I want to pay them back but I can't even support myself because business "can't take a chance."

The boys in my group are getting a lousy deal. What can we do about it?—UNEMPLOYALBE.

Dear Unemployable: I agree it's a rough go and darned unfair. But who ever said life was fair? If I were you I'd sign up and get my service over with.

All For Volunteers

Dear Ann: I'm teed off at the person who wrote to you and said:

"Please don't suggest volunteer work for high-strung, disturbed females. Crazy, mixed-up dames need therapy, not volunteer work. They are a pain in the neck to the woman who must train them. Please send those disturbed females to psychiatrists, not to us."

If the volunteer workers are putting in the time because they need to keep busy or because they need to feel that they are helping someone who is worse off than they are, what's wrong with that? In our city there are dozens of society woman who do volunteer work because they want to get their pictures in the paper.

Print this if you have the courage.—"DISTURBED" VOLUNTEER.

Dear D.V.: I especially appreciated your letter because I was one of those crazy, mixed-up dames" who accumulated more than 5,000 hours of Red Cross Gray Lady service before I became Ann Landers.

The next letter is from R.J.L., director of volunteers at one of Chicago's largest hospitals:

"Some of the finest volunteers were in a very disturbed state when they came to be interviewed. In the process of regaining their confidence they have given invaluable service to patients, staff and employes. Everyone benefits.

"Who among us has not been disturbed at some time in our lives? Only those who die in infancy, that's who.—R.J.L."

Total Togetherness

Dear Ann: I work six days a week and so does my wife. I help her with the housework and never gripe about it. I figure she helps me by adding to the family income so I should pitch in and give her a hand at home.

Here's the problem: My wife insists that I accompany her on shopping expeditions on my day off. I don't think this is fair. We argue about it every Saturday. Usually I lose.

Shouldn't a man be free to play golf or go to a ball game or just loaf around the house one day a week? My wife believes in total togetherness and says I'm wrong. Am I?—VA PROBLEMS.

Dear Va.: No. She's wrong. If your wife can't decide between the blue dress or the green dress, suggest that she bring them both home on approval.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Driver Fined For Speeding

Ernest McCarty of 1775 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs today in Municipal Court on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd.

Cited Friday by the State Highway Patrol, McCarty entered a "no contest" plea before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

In another speeding case due for a hearing today, the judge granted a continuance until Feb. 10. The defendant is William F. Brogley of Youngstown, cited by the patrol Jan. 16. Charges Dismissed Against Brindley

Acting at the request of the complaining witness, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today dismissed a case in which Paul Brindley of 819 Lincoln Ave. was charged with failing to stop and furnish information required by law after his auto allegedly struck a parked car Sunday.

Brindley pleaded not guilty at arraignment Wednesday and the case was continued until today. The affidavit was signed by Ethelle Riggs, whose address was not listed.

Twenty-three per cent of the 2,060,411 passenger cars produced in the nation last year were equipped with air - conditioning.

War Veteran, 43, Gets Life Term In 1965 Slaying

MARION, Ohio (AP) — Roy Debo may spend the rest of his life in prison because he tried to pick up the threads of a youthful romance interrupted when he began 20 years of Army service—and murder ensued.

The veteran of World War II European combat and Korea, where he earned more battle stars, was convicted of first-degree murder Wednesday night. The victim was Kramer H. Bowden, 40, the man his teen-age sweetheart married two years after Debo went away.

The jury recommended mercy and Judge Paul D. Smith pronounced the mandatory life sentence for the June 29, 1965, fatal shooting at a rural crossroads southwest of here.

Three days of testimony developed that Debo, now 43, came back upon Army retirement in 1964 and began courting the girl he'd left behind—now Mrs. Bowden and a mother of five children. Her husband was a Marion factory employe.

At the defendant's side during the trial was his own wife—like Mrs. Bowden named Ruth—whom he married in 1949.

In Debo's lap when the jury filed in after two hours, 40 minutes of deliberation was his daughter, Judy, 11.

Committee Work Marking Day In W.Va. Assembly

CHARLESTON (AP) — The legislature had little action scheduled for the floor today as West Virginia's lawmakers worked behind the scenes in committees preparing a score of bills expected to wash away the mid-session doldrums.

Both houses were to meet at 1 p.m. The Senate was to have one bill at passage stage while three bills were to be voted on in the lower chamber. Only one House bill was of major importance.

Meanwhile, the House Judiciary Committee was expected to have a blue meeting today as the result of legislation introduced Wednesday by Del. T. E. Myles, D-Fayette. It asks the legislature to approve a bill which would broaden the county option provision of the Sunday-closing "blue law" passed two years ago.

Packer Aide Hecker Gains Atlanta Post

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The new head coach of the Atlanta Falcons sometimes goes by the name of J. Jones.

By now, those interested in National Football League affairs know that the Falcons' man is Norb Hecker.

He used the name "J. Jones" to keep secret Falcon owner Rankin Smith's selection of a new head coach.

"I felt like agent 007 coming into Atlanta," said Hecker, 38, who for the past six years has been assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers. "I thought the game was up on an airplane when a stewardess recognized me and said, 'Hello, Mr. Hecker.' But no one else found out."

Hecker wasted little time getting to work. He started calling friends Wednesday afternoon in a search for five assistant coaches.

He said he doesn't plan to move his wife and five children to Atlanta until school is out "because I'm going to be so busy I wouldn't have time to spend with them anyway."

Hecker was first contacted by the Falcons last Saturday, and was told Tuesday to fly to Atlanta so he could be introduced at a news conference Wednesday.

Hecker said that he feels Atlanta has some top college players on its roster, "and with the 42 players we will get from the other teams I believe we will have pretty good talent."

The former Baldwin-Wallace College star, who played halfback for the Los Angeles Rams and the Washington Redskins before a knee injury ended his NFL career in 1957, said he will first build a strong defense with the Falcons.

"You can't win in the NFL without a good defense," said Hecker, who has been defensive backfield coach for the Packers. "And it is easier to build a defense than an offense."

Hecker has been considered one of Packer Coach Vince Lombardi's top aides. But he lacks Lombardi's brooding intensity and is slow to anger.

"Norb has all the qualifications of a paragon," Lombardi said. "He is a very fine young gentleman, highly intelligent and with a fine personality. He is extremely loyal and one of the finest workers I have ever seen on my staff."

Lombardi, who recommended Hecker for the Atlanta coaching post, said he didn't know his former aide's coaching policy. "He's been coaching with mine and now he'll have to coach with his own," said Lombardi.

DISAPPOINTED? Don Massengale, winner of the Bing Crosby Invitational grimaces in disappointment as his drive off the 15th tee at Harding Park lands in a fairway trap Wednesday during the pro-am tuneup round prior to the start today of the Lucky International Open tourney. (UPI Telephoto)

Houston 11 For 12; Bearcats Given Scare

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The University of Houston Cougars have become one of the best independent college basketball teams in the country after losing their first three games of the season.

The Cougars, playing on their home court in Texas, edged Baylor 92-91 in overtime Wednesday night for their sixth straight victory. They now have won 11 of 12 games since their first three defeats by San Francisco, Brigham Young and Texas A&M for an over-all 11-4 record. Their other defeat was by one point to Maryland 69-68.

The Cougars boast a 102-89 victory over the Providence Friars, the lone defeat of the season for the Friars, third-ranked in The Associated Press poll.

The Cougars also own a 72-71 road triumph over the Tulsa Hurricane, the leader in the tough Missouri Valley Conference.

Joe Hamood, whose basket in the last 36 seconds beat Tulsa, was the hero again against Baylor. He beat the Bears with a free throw in the last seven seconds of the extra period. This gave the Cougars a three-point lead and they made no effort to stop Russell Kibbe from scoring a Baylor basket with two seconds left.

Hamood paced the Cougars with 27 points. Darrell Hardy, who forced the overtime with a corner shot in the last 14 seconds to tie the regulation game at 83-83, was high for Baylor with 21.

Eighth-ranked Cincinnati, the only team in the AP Top Ten, to see action, had a hard struggle at home to defeat St. Joseph's College of Indiana, the team which upset the Bearcats a year ago. This time the Bearcats won 71-66, paced by sophomore John Howard's 26 points.

Drake came from behind for a 74-71 road triumph over Iowa State in the 120th renewal of their basketball rivalry. Bob Netolicky, with 16, and Herman Watson and Hardol Jeter, with 15 each, combined for 46 points to lead the Bulldogs. Sophomore Don Smith starred in a losing cause with 30 points and 24 rebounds for a single-game Iowa State record.

Miami of Ohio, the leader in the Mid-American Conference, won its 10th straight with a 74-57 home-court victory over Marshall. Army edged Rutgers 62-61 at West Point for its sixth in a row.

Red Robbins, 21, and Ron Widby, 20, combined for 41 points to lead Tennessee over North Carolina State 65-54 on the neutral Mid-South Coliseum court in Memphis.

Windy City Has Failed Before

NBA Welcomes Chicago; Russell Sought As Star

CHICAGO (AP) — The hopes of Chicago's entry in the National Basketball Association for next season undoubtedly rest with the possible acquisition of home-towner Cazzie Russell, the All-America at Michigan.

Chicago twice before has failed to make a go in the NBA, but Wednesday it was given another chance by the league's board of governors in New York.

They voted to expand to 10 teams with the new franchise awarded to a Chicago group headed by Dick Klein, former basketball player at North western and with the old Chicago Gears pro team of the 1940s, and now head of his own sales promotion company.

Russell could become the hub of the team and kingpin of its promotion.

Cazzie reportedly said in Ann Arbor, Mich., Wednesday night: "Several people interested in a franchise for Chicago have talked to me. I am inquisitive about what the outcome will be. It will be a tougher decision about me playing in Chicago than a lot of people think."

The last time Chicago made a run for it in the NBA was 1961. The team was first called the Packers and then the Zephyrs, and moved to Baltimore in 1963. Prior to that were the Stags who lasted from 1946 to 1950.

When Chicago got a franchise in 1961, it received from the NBA the No. 1 draft choice and five choices on the second round. Walt Bellamy of Indiana was a top pick and some NBA owners are said still to be sour about it. They may not be that generous again with a new team.

Whether they are may be disclosed today at a news conference in Chicago attended by Walter Kennedy, NBA president; Ben Kerner, owner of the St. Louis Hawks and chairman of the expansion committee, and Klein, who is to tell of his plans to make the International Amphitheatre home base.

Youngstown Moves To 4th In Cage Poll

By The Associated Press

The Southern Illinois Salukis, impressive victors in two games last week, have increased their lead in the Associated Press small-college basketball poll. Grambling has taken over second place from North Dakota.

The Salukis collected five first-place votes and 118 points in the balloting by a special panel of 15 regional experts. The voting was based on games through last Saturday.

Grambling had 88 points followed by North Dakota with 80, Youngstown 64, and Northern Michigan 55. Points were awarded on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second etc.

Southern Illinois downed Evansville 79-65 and Tennessee State 84-70, boosting its record to 10-3. Grambling was not scheduled last week.

North Dakota tumbled one place to third despite victories over Bemidji 91-76 and Parsons 97-75.

Record 462 Arc Light Games Set In National

CINCINNATI (AP) — Baseball fans in National League cities will see an increased number of games under the lights this year.

The league's 1966 schedule shows 462 night games — compared with 433 last year. Chicago's Wrigley Field is the only ball park without lights so all Cub home games, as in the past, will be daytime affairs.

One of the season's first games under the lights will be the debut of the new Atlanta Braves, who take on Pittsburgh in a home game the night of April 12.

St. Louis, Los Angeles and San Francisco also play their first home games April 12, one day after the season starts at Cincinnati's Crosley Field with a game between the Reds and the New York Mets.

Cincinnati starts a day before the rest of the league in alternating years. It always opens the season at home in recognition of the fact the first professional baseball team was formed here in 1869.

Philadelphia, which plays its first game at St. Louis, will open at home April 15 against the Reds. Houston and Chicago start play on the West Coast, at Los Angeles and San Francisco, respectively.

The Braves travel to New York for the Mets' home opener April 15, and the Cardinals face Pittsburgh the same day in the Pirates' first home game.

Chicago fans will be the last to see their team in action. The Cubs' home opener is April 19 against San Francisco. Houston plays its first home game April 18 against Los Angeles.

Wanamaker Mile Duel Tops Millrose Events

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Crothers, a quiet, soft-spoken Canadian who doesn't waste words, laid it on the line about tonight's duel with Kenya's Kipchoge Keino in the Wanamaker Mile at the Millrose Games.

"It'll just depend on how much guts I have," he said. "If I have lots, I'll run a 3:58. If I have none, I'll do a 4:10."

The match-up of the Kenyan, who has ripped off two world records in the last few months, and has become one of the world's most exciting runners, and Crothers, one of the world's finest middle-distance runners, easily tops the card for the first of the New York indoor meets.

But it has to share some of the glamor with spectacular fields in other events.

For example, John Pennel who set an indoor mark of 16-9¼ last week in Los Angeles, has announced an attempt at 17 feet in the pole vault.

John Thomas, attempting a comeback in the high jump, will be challenged by Frank Costello, a seven-footer from Maryland.

But it's the mile that will draw the most attention. Besides Keino and Crothers, the field includes Olympic 1,500-meter silver medalist Josef Odlozil of Czechoslovakia, Bob Day and Keith Forman, both sub-four milers, and Canadian veteran Ergas Leps.

Keino is the headliner. The 26-year-old Kenyan policeman has set world marks at 3,000 and 5,000 meters and has clipped off a 3:54.2 mile — all outdoors.

He has run only twice indoors, both last week in Los Angeles. He lost the mile to Jim Grelle's 4:00.9 effort, but came back and took the two mile.

Dartmouth Aide Named At Cornell

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP) — "Dartmouth has been good to me and I'm not going to raid its coaching staff," says Jack Musick, new head football coach at Cornell University.

Musick, 40, was named Wednesday from his post as line coach for Dartmouth College's undefeated Ivy League champions.

He succeeded Tom Harp, 38, who became head coach at Duke University after five years of guiding the Big Red.

During his 11 years with the Indians, Dartmouth gridders compiled a 69-27-3 record, including three Ivy titles and two unbeaten seasons.

North Cincy Site Picked For Stadium

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Maketewah Country Club golf course north of downtown Cincinnati has been selected as the best site for a proposed $35 million stadium, the Cincinnati Enquirer said today.

The Enquirer said two consulting firms that have been studying possible sites and financing means will recommend to the city's Stadium Steering Committee next Tuesday that it try to purchase the country club land.

The consultants also will recommend that voters be asked to approve a special tax levy of two mills at the May primary to pay for the structure, the newspaper said.

The stadium would be used by the Cincinnati Reds baseball team and by a National Football League franchise, which the city is seeking.

Maketewah Country Club is approximately 15 minutes from downtown and is easily accessible from Interstates 71 and 75.

Next Wednesday is the deadline to get a special tax on the primary ballot. It first would have to be approved by the Hamilton County commissioners. Joseph Decourcy, commissioners' president, said he would not have any comment until he has seen the full report.

George Fee, attorney for Maketewah, has said the club grounds are worth at least $4 million. No formal offer has been made for the purchase. If an agreement price could not be reached, the city could exercise the right of eminent domain to take immediate possession and argue it in court later.

Palmer Fires Best Warmup In Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Golf's leading money winner of all time, Arnold Palmer, opened play today in the $55,000 Lucky International Open after starting 1966 faster than any other year in his remarkable pro career.

Arnie won low pro honors in the pro-amateur prelude over the Harding Park municipal course to push his January earnings to $20,750.

Not a bad start for a fellow who many thought on the down grade when he placed only 10th on the money list in 1965 with $57,770 in official winnings and $82,989 over-all.

Today Palmer left the tee among the late starters for this first round of San Francisco's 72-hole event with its $7,500 top prize.

He had whipped around Harding in 65 Wednesday followed by a big gallery and playing with three amateur partners who helped him to a 56 in the team play, tied for second with a group headed by George Bayer, who individually had a 76.

Don Massengale, who hung on to beat Arnie by a stroke last Sunday at the Crosby, also found Harding to his liking in the pro-am and posted a 67. So did Randy Glover and Billy Maxwell.

The latter and his team of Californians won the team honors with a best-ball 55. With Maxwell were Erick Engman of San Francisco, Lloyd F. Fritzell of Red Bluff and Lou Spiro of Stockton.

Preakness Plans Festival Similar To Derby Week

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — A Preakness festival patterned after the week-long Kentucky Derby celebration in Louisville was proposed today to Gov. J. Millard Tawes and Mayor Theodore A. McKeldin of Baltimore.

A committee appointed by the governor and mayor urged that work begin immediately so a festival can be held for this year's running of the Preakness May 21.

Herbert G. Bailey Jr., chairman of the special committee, said the Maryland Jockey Club, which owns Pimlico race track, has agreed to finance the festival for the next two years up to a maximum of $50,000 a year.

The foot is conceded to be the "hardest working" member of the human body in proportion to size.

Baylor, West Lead Lakers Over Detroit

By The Associated Press

The chronic knee trouble of Elgin Baylor, sufficiently serious to bench the Los Angeles sharpshooter earlier in the season, didn't seem to give him any trouble Wednesday night.

Baylor and Jerry West combined for the one-two punch in the Lakers 126-110 defeat of the Detroit Pistons in the nightcap of a National Basketball Association doubleheader in Detroit.

The New York Knicks spurted to a strong finish in the opener, downing the San Francisco Warriors 115-103 in the night's only other NBA game.

Baylor blazed to a fast start, dropping in 11 points and clearing the boards eight times in the first period. The Lakers took a 31-26 lead into the second period and led the rest of the way, increasing their Western Division lead to three games over the idle Baltimore Bullets.

Down 65-47 at halftime, Detroit surged to within eight points twice in the third period and to within six early in the fourth.

But eight consecutive points, four from West, dealt the last-place Pistons the final blow.

West topped all shooters with 35 points while Baylor and Bob Boozer had 21 each. Pistons' center Joe Strawder scored 22 points to lead the losers.

Packer Aide Hecker Gains Atlanta Post

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The new head coach of the Atlanta Falcons sometimes goes by the name of J. Jones.

By now, those interested in National Football League affairs know that the Falcons' man is Norb Hecker.

He used the name "J. Jones" to keep secret Falcon owner Rankin Smith's selection of a new head coach.

"I felt like agent 007 coming into Atlanta," said Hecker, 38, who for the past six years has been assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers. "I thought the game was up on an airplane when a stewardess recognized me and said, 'Hello, Mr. Hecker.' But no one else found out."

Hecker wasted little time getting to work. He started calling friends Wednesday afternoon in a search for five assistant coaches.

He said he doesn't plan to move his wife and five children to Atlanta until school is out "because I'm going to be so busy I wouldn't have time to spend with them anyway."

Hecker was first contacted by the Falcons last Saturday, and was told Tuesday to fly to Atlanta so he could be introduced at a news conference Wednesday.

Hecker said that he feels Atlanta has some top college players on its roster, "and with the 42 players we will get from the other teams I believe we will have pretty good talent."

The former Baldwin-Wallace College star, who played halfback for the Los Angeles Rams and the Washington Redskins before a knee injury ended his NFL career in 1957, said he will first build a strong defense with the Falcons.

"You can't win in the NFL without a good defense," said Hecker, who has been defensive backfield coach for the Packers. "And it is easier to build a defense than an offense."

Hecker has been considered one of Packer Coach Vince Lombardi's top aides. But he lacks Lombardi's brooding intensity and is slow to anger.

"Norb has all the qualifications of a paragon," Lombardi said. "He is a very fine young gentleman, highly intelligent and with a fine personality. He is extremely loyal and one of the finest workers I have ever seen on my staff."

Lombardi, who recommended Hecker for the Atlanta coaching post, said he didn't know his former aide's coaching policy. "He's been coaching with mine and now he'll have to coach with his own," said Lombardi.

DISAPPOINTED? Don Massengale, winner of the Bing Crosby Invitational grimaces in disappointment as his drive off the 15th tee at Harding Park lands in a fairway trap Wednesday during the pro-am tuneup round prior to the start today of the Lucky International Open tourney. (UPI Telephoto)

Houston 11 For 12; Bearcats Given Scare

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The University of Houston Cougars have become one of the best independent college basketball teams in the country after losing their first three games of the season.

The Cougars, playing on their home court in Texas, edged Baylor 92-91 in overtime Wednesday night for their sixth straight victory. They now have won 11 of 12 games since their first three defeats by San Francisco, Brigham Young and Texas A&M for an over-all 11-4 record. Their other defeat was by one point to Maryland 69-68.

The Cougars boast a 102-89 victory over the Providence Friars, the lone defeat of the season for the Friars, third-ranked in The Associated Press poll.

The Cougars also own a 72-71 road triumph over the Tulsa Hurricane, the leader in the tough Missouri Valley Conference.

Joe Hamood, whose basket in the last 36 seconds beat Tulsa, was the hero again against Baylor. He beat the Bears with a free throw in the last seven seconds of the extra period. This gave the Cougars a three-point lead and they made no effort to stop Russell Kibbe from scoring a Baylor basket with two seconds left.

Hamood paced the Cougars with 27 points. Darrell Hardy, who forced the overtime with a corner shot in the last 14 seconds to tie the regulation game at 83-83, was high for Baylor with 21.

Eighth-ranked Cincinnati, the only team in the AP Top Ten, to see action, had a hard struggle at home to defeat St. Joseph's College of Indiana, the team which upset the Bearcats a year ago. This time the Bearcats won 71-66, paced by sophomore John Howard's 26 points.

Drake came from behind for a 74-71 road triumph over Iowa State in the 120th renewal of their basketball rivalry. Bob Netolicky, with 16, and Herman Watson and Hardol Jeter, with 15 each, combined for 46 points to lead the Bulldogs. Sophomore Don Smith starred in a losing cause with 30 points and 24 rebounds for a single-game Iowa State record.

Miami of Ohio, the leader in the Mid-American Conference, won its 10th straight with a 74-57 home-court victory over Marshall. Army edged Rutgers 62-61 at West Point for its sixth in a row.

Red Robbins, 21, and Ron Widby, 20, combined for 41 points to lead Tennessee over North Carolina State 65-54 on the neutral Mid-South Coliseum court in Memphis.

NBA Welcomes Chicago; Russell Sought As Star

CHICAGO (AP) — The hopes of Chicago's entry in the National Basketball Association for next season undoubtedly rest with the possible acquisition of home-towner Cazzie Russell, the All-America at Michigan.

Chicago twice before has failed to make a go in the NBA, but Wednesday it was given another chance by the league's board of governors in New York.

They voted to expand to 10 teams with the new franchise awarded to a Chicago group headed by Dick Klein, former basketball player at Northwestern and with the old Chicago Gears pro team of the 1940s, and now head of his own sales promotion company.

Russell could become the hub of the team and kingpin of its promotion.

Cazzie reportedly said in Ann Arbor, Mich., Wednesday night: "Several people interested in a franchise for Chicago have talked to me. I am inquisitive about what the outcome will be. It will be a tougher decision about me playing in Chicago than a lot of people think."

The last time Chicago made a run for it in the NBA was 1961. The team was first called the Packers and then the Zephyrs, and moved to Baltimore in 1963. Prior to that were the Stags who lasted from 1946 to 1950.

When Chicago got a franchise in 1961, it received from the NBA the No. 1 draft choice and five choices on the second round. Walt Bellamy of Indiana was a top pick and some NBA owners are said still to be sour about it. They may not be that generous again with a new team.

Whether they are may be disclosed today at a news conference in Chicago attended by Walter Kennedy, NBA president; Ben Kerner, owner of the St. Louis Hawks and chairman of the expansion committee, and Klein, who is to tell of his plans to make the International Amphitheatre home base.

Wanamaker Mile Duel Tops Millrose Events

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Crothers, a quiet, soft-spoken Canadian who doesn't waste words, laid it on the line about tonight's duel with Kenya's Kipchoge Keino in the Wanamaker Mile at the Millrose Games.

"It'll just depend on how much guts I have," he said. "If I have lots, I'll run a 3:58. If I have none, I'll do a 4:10."

The match-up of the Kenyan, who has ripped off two world records in the last few months, and has become one of the world's most exciting runners, and Crothers, one of the world's finest middle-distance runners, easily tops the card for the first of the New York indoor meets.

But it has to share some of the glamor with spectacular fields in other events.

For example, John Pennel who set an indoor mark of 16-9¼ last week in Los Angeles, has announced an attempt at 17 feet in the pole vault.

John Thomas, attempting a comeback in the high jump, will be challenged by Frank Costello, a seven-footer from Maryland.

But it's the mile that will draw the most attention. Besides Keino and Crothers, the field includes Olympic 1,500-meter silver medalist Josef Odlozil of Czechoslovakia, Bob Day and Keith Forman, both sub-four milers, and Canadian veteran Ergas Leps.

Keino is the headliner. The 26-year-old Kenyan policeman has set world marks at 3,000 and 5,000 meters and has clipped off a 3:54.2 mile — all outdoors.

He has run only twice indoors, both last week in Los Angeles. He lost the mile to Jim Grelle's 4:00.9 effort, but came back and took the two mile.

Youngstown Moves To 4th In Cage Poll

By The Associated Press

The Southern Illinois Salukis, impressive victors in two games last week, have increased their lead in the Associated Press small-college basketball poll. Grambling has taken over second place from North Dakota.

The Salukis collected five first-place votes and 118 points in the balloting by a special panel of 15 regional experts. The voting was based on games through last Saturday.

Grambling had 88 points followed by North Dakota with 80, Youngstown 64, and Northern Michigan 55. Points were awarded on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second etc.

Southern Illinois downed Evansville 79-65 and Tennessee State 84-70, boosting its record to 10-3. Grambling was not scheduled last week.

North Dakota tumbled one place to third despite victories over Bemidji 91-76 and Parsons 97-75.

The Top Ten, with won-lost records through games of Jan. 22 and total points:

1.	Southern Ill. 10-3	118
2.	Grambling 14-2	88
3.	North Dakota 16-2	80

Record 462 Arc Light Games Set In National

CINCINNATI (AP) — Baseball fans in National League cities will see an increased number of games under the lights this year.

The league's 1966 schedule shows 462 night games — compared with 433 last year. Chicago's Wrigley Field is the only ball park without lights so all Cub home games, as in the past, will be daytime affairs.

One of the season's first games under the lights will be the debut of the new Atlanta Braves, who take on Pittsburgh in a home game the night of April 12.

St. Louis, Los Angeles and San Francisco also play their first home games April 12, one day after the season starts at Cincinnati's Crosley Field with a game between the Reds and the New York Mets.

Cincinnati starts a day before the rest of the league in alternating years. It always opens the season at home in recognition of the fact the first professional baseball team was formed here in 1869.

Philadelphia, which plays its first game at St. Louis, will open at home April 15 against the Reds. Houston and Chicago start play on the West Coast, at Los Angeles and San Francisco, respectively.

The Braves travel to New York for the Mets' home opener April 15, and the Cardinals face Pittsburgh the same day in the Pirates' first home game.

Chicago fans will be the last to see their team in action. The Cubs' home opener is April 19 against San Francisco. Houston plays its first home game April 18 against Los Angeles.

Dartmouth Aide Named At Cornell

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP) — "Dartmouth has been good to me and I'm not going to raid its coaching staff," says Jack Musick, new head football coach at Cornell University.

Musick, 40, was named Wednesday from his post as line coach for Dartmouth College's undefeated Ivy League champions.

He succeeded Tom Harp, 38, who became head coach at Duke University after five years of guiding the Big Red.

During his 11 years with the Indians, Dartmouth gridders compiled a 69-27-3 record, including three Ivy titles and two unbeaten seasons.

North Cincy Site Picked For Stadium

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Maketewah Country Club golf course north of downtown Cincinnati has been selected as the best site for a proposed $35 million stadium, the Cincinnati Enquirer said today.

The Enquirer said two consulting firms that have been studying possible sites and financing means will recommend to the city's Stadium Steering Committee next Tuesday that it try to purchase the country club land.

The consultants also will recommend that voters be asked to approve a special tax levy of two mills at the May primary to pay for the structure, the newspaper said.

The stadium would be used by the Cincinnati Reds baseball team and by a National Football League franchise, which the city is seeking.

Maketewah Country Club is approximately 15 minutes from downtown and is easily accessible from Interstates 71 and 75.

Next Wednesday is the deadline to get a special tax on the primary ballot. It first would have to be approved by the Hamilton County commissioners. Joseph Decourcy, commissioners' president, said he would not have any comment until he has seen the full report.

George Fee, attorney for Maketewah, has said the club grounds are worth at least $4 million. No formal offer has been made for the purchase. If an agreement price could not be reached, the city could exercise the right of eminent domain to take immediate possession and argue it in court later.

Palmer Fires Best Warmup In Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Golf's leading money winner of all time, Arnold Palmer, opened play today in the $55,000 Lucky International Open after starting 1966 faster than any other year in his remarkable pro career.

Arnie won low pro honors in the pro-amateur prelude over the Harding Park municipal course to push his January earnings to $20,750.

Not a bad start for a fellow who many thought on the down grade when he placed only 10th on the money list in 1965 with $57,770 in official winnings and $82,989 over-all.

Today Palmer left the tee among the late starters for this first round of San Francisco's 72-hole event with its $7,500 top prize.

He had whipped around Harding in 65 Wednesday followed by a big gallery and playing with three amateur partners who helped him to a 56 in the team play, tied for second with a group headed by George Bayer, who individually had a 76.

Don Massengale, who hung on to beat Arnie by a stroke last Sunday at the Crosby, also found Harding to his liking in the pro-am and posted a 67. So did Randy Glover and Billy Maxwell.

The latter and his team of Californians won the team honors with a best-ball 55. With Maxwell were Erick Engman of San Francisco, Lloyd F. Fritzell of Red Bluff and Lou Spiro of Stockton.

Preakness Plans Festival Similar To Derby Week

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — A Preakness festival patterned after the week-long Kentucky Derby celebration in Louisville was proposed today to Gov. J. Millard Tawes and Mayor Theodore A. McKeldin of Baltimore.

A committee appointed by the governor and mayor urged that work begin immediately so a festival can be held for this year's running of the Preakness May 21.

Herbert G. Bailey Jr., chairman of the special committee, said the Maryland Jockey Club, which owns Pimlico race track, has agreed to finance the festival for the next two years up to a maximum of $50,000 a year.

The foot is conceded to be the "hardest working" member of the human body in proportion to size.

Baylor, West Lead Lakers Over Detroit

By The Associated Press

The chronic knee trouble of Elgin Baylor, sufficiently serious to bench the Los Angeles sharpshooter earlier in the season, didn't seem to give him any trouble Wednesday night.

Baylor and Jerry West combined for the one-two punch in the Lakers 126-110 defeat of the Detroit Pistons in the nightcap of a National Basketball Association doubleheader in Detroit.

The New York Knicks spurted to a strong finish in the opener, downing the San Francisco Warriors 115-103 in the night's only other NBA game.

Baylor blazed to a fast start, dropping in 11 points and clearing the boards eight times in the first period. The Lakers took a 31-26 lead into the second period and led the rest of the way, increasing their Western Division lead to three games over the idle Baltimore Bullets.

Down 65-47 at halftime, Detroit surged to within eight points twice in the third period and to within six early in the fourth.

But eight consecutive points, four from West, dealt the last-place Pistons the final blow.

West topped all shooters with 35 points while Baylor and Bob Boozer had 21 each. Pistons' center Joe Strawder scored 22 points to lead the losers.

SECTION 7. For the payment of the principal and interest of said notes, the full faith, credit and revenue of the City of East Liverpool be, and they are hereby irrevocably pledged.
SECTION 8. Any premium and accrued interest (and the amount necessary for the payment of interest prior to their maturity) shall be transferred to the Bond Retirement Fund to be applied in the payment of principal and interest of said notes in the manner provided by law.
SECTION 9. The proceeds of the bonds to be issued and all unexpended balance remaining unpaid in the fund after the cost and expenses of the purchase have been paid, shall be applied to the payment of said notes and interest thereof as the same shall become due and to no other purpose whatsoever, until all of said notes and said interest have been fully paid.
SECTION 10. That for the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of notes, promptly when and as the same falls due and also to provide a fund sufficient to discharge the said notes at maturity, there shall be and is hereby levied on all the taxable property in said City of East Liverpool, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period for which said notes are to run, in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay interest upon said notes as and when the same falls due and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of said notes at maturity, which said tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund tax required by Section 11, of Article II of the Constitution.

SECTION 11. The City Auditor is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this ordinance to the County Auditor.
SECTION 12. This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure, and shall take effect and be in force immediately upon passage and approval. Said emergency lies in the fact that additional parking facilities are urgently needed in the City of East Liverpool in order to control the traffic by providing means by which said traffic may be removed from the streets of said City, and this action is therefore necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety of the citizens of said City.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Thursday, Jan. 27, the 27th day of 1966. There are 338 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1914, an executive order by President Woodrow Wilson established permanent civil government for the Panama Canal Zone.

On this date

In 1756, composer Wolfgang Mozart was born in Salsburg, Austria.

In 1880, a patent for the incandescent lamp was granted to Thomas A. Edison.

In 1943, heavy bombers made the first all-American assault on Germany.

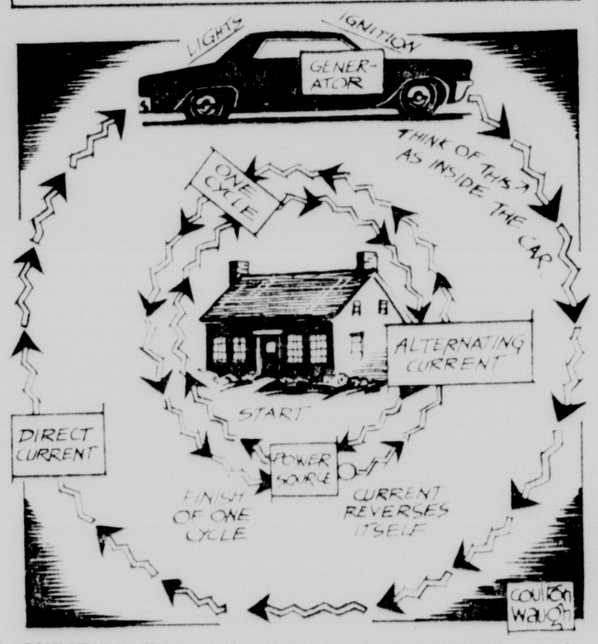

In 1945, a federal district court ruled the government seizure of Montgomery-Ward in a labor dispute was illegal.

Ten years ago — President Dwight Eisenhower rejected a proposal by Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin for a treaty of friendship and cooperation.

Five years ago—U.S. Navy officers assured the hijackers of the cruise ship Santa Maria in the Caribbean that they would take no action against the men if they would disembark the passengers.

One year ago — President Johnson, ill with a cold, announced he would be unable to attend the funeral of Winston Churchill in London.

Junior Editors Quiz on ELECTRIC CURRENT

QUESTION: What is the difference between direct and alternating current?

ANSWER: Direct current (D. C.) and alternating current (A. C.) are two different ways an electric current can pass along a wire. In a car (top of picture), many electric mechanisms operate by direct current. This is produced in the car by its electric generator (some of the newer cars have alternators, generating A. C., which is then turned into D. C.) The direct current, when turned on, moves in one direction around a circuit inside the car, operating such things as lights and the ignition system as it does so. A. C., the other kind of current, is that almost always used to bring electric power to our houses (center). Here, the current produced in a generating plant and flashes around a large circuit at inconceivable speed, supplying power to houses, town and cities as it goes. It keeps on whizzing around in the same direction until it has built up its power as far as it can go, keeping on while its power decreases to the zero point. The the current flow reverses itself, and now, as our simplified diagram suggests, it flows back along the path it came, whizzing round and round until it reaches its maximum and sinks to zero again. With this reverse movement complete, the current has made one cycle. Home current has 60 such cycles to the second.

FOR YOU TO DO: This is a difficut subject to understand, but it is a most fascinating and important one, since we are living in an electrical age. Save this article for your science scrap book or ask your science teacher to explain it further.
